A Suite of Angels and Other Poems Kenneth Pitchford, 1967-01-30 Unlike most collections this well wrought book is unified around certain central themes and images These images may depict the various forms of love either experienced in reality by the waking self or suffered anew in the archetypes of sleep where old myths take on new meanings The book is an investigation of the forms of love and through their effects on a single individual their effect on us all Originally published in 1967 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value Vital including dark matter holes in matter ordinary human beings and a little bit of everything else that matters Beyond the poems a series of notes explains something of where the poems come from but of course not all David C Kopaska Merkel author of Unwelcome Guests and Risk Assessment Reading Mother Hubble's Cupboard by Sandra Lindow is like sitting in the overlap of a dozen different planet's busy orbits watching them whizz by except instead of planets they are physics ecology sensuality folklore and more Oh and also sometimes planets The first section casts the Hubble Telescope as the titular Mother Hubble and more than just a tool she's a character a photographer documenting the mysteries of space with an artist's eye The poetry balances the desire to look up and out and understand with the impulse look back towards the past to name and emotionally process our place in the universe for example the Royal Astronomy's Society nickname of the Unicorn Black Hole not to mention dwarf stars universal soup universal trees and even metaphors new to Lindow's collection like the universe as a Russian Matreshka doll And as much as the book wanders far beyond our planet and our solar system and even further Lindow still remembers to bring us home occasionally As she says the great blue beast you ride She's all you have Ride gently Amelia Gorman Field Guide to Invasive Species of Minnesota Poetry Harriet Monroe, 1967 University of California Union Catalog of Monographs Cataloged by the Nine Campuses from 1963 Through 1967: Authors & titles University of California (System).
