Hamilton, 2017-04-03 Stephen J Hamilton attempts to create a portrait of born again Christianity by providing a general introduction to the doctrine of regeneration including its development in modernity as well as short exegeses of relevant scriptural texts followed by a close reading of four theologians Philipp Jakob Spener Jonathan Edwards Friedrich D E Schleiermacher and Charles G Finney who all associate the doctrine of regeneration with an experience of presence in the individual believer In light of these analyses he then traces a general theological structure of the born again understanding of regeneration including a catalogue of theological issues over which there is significant disagreement in order to create a topography of born again theologies In the final section he applies these results to contemporary conversion narratives of non theologians It is in such conversion narratives the author argues that theologians can discover an implicit lived theology that reveals how doctrines are perceived and put into practice among Christians Accordingly this is to be understood as the result of the creative reciprocity between often tacit theological convictions and the experiences of the Christian life The final chapter as a coda to the entire work offers some concluding reflections on the present cultural and political situation in the USA pertaining to born again Christianity and argues against any oversimplifications of the relationship between born again theologies culture and politics State Guidance Programs Maris Marion Proffitt, Mary Dabney Davis, United States. Office of Education, Ward Wilbur Keesecker, 1933 Roman Catholics: Saved or Lost? Larry E Miller, 2020-12-20 Why is this book needed now Until mid 20th century among evangelicalism the near unanimous view was that most Roman Catholics are lost due to their corrupted gospel In recent decades increased numbers of big tent evangelicals have begun to accept Roman Catholics as our brothers and sisters in Christ Is this a remarkable achievement or tragic compromise It is my position that it is a tragic compromise therefore this book is needed NOW In Chapters One and Two a history of evangelicalism is provided demonstrating the changes that have occurred as well as a review of the most significant published documents manifesting these changes These include such documents as Vatican II Evangelicals and Catholics Together and other post 1990 s publications Then summarized are the major factors that have contributed to this precipitous change transdenominationalism desire for visible unity supernatural conversionism cultural engagement and decline in doctrinal clarity Chapter Three presents an exegetically based definition of the true gospel as penned by the Apostle Paul In Chapter Four the Roman Catholic official way of salvation is summarized from their own documents and it is DIFFERENT from that penned by Paul Based on decades of ministry as a church planter in the city of New Orleans in Chapters Five through Nine I present from a boots on the ground perspective a practical how to regarding effective evangelization of lost Roman Catholics With a God dependent attitude and the application of this methodology scores even hundreds of dear Roman Catholic people came to understand and respond by faith to the Bible based grace message that saves

Re-imagining Senior Secondary Religious Education William Sultmann, Janeen Lamb, Peter Ivers, Mark Craig, 2023-02-28 This book examines and reports the findings regarding the level of satisfaction by students teachers and parents with an innovative senior secondary Religious Education curriculum Religion Meaning and Life RML The stimulus for RML is found in the changing profile of students within faith based schools and the motivation of school authorities to be inclusive and responsive to changing needs and priorities of students and families Curriculum practices typically mirror this continuing renewal as community expectations give rise to innovation in curriculum practice This concept of continuity and discontinuity is evidenced in the field of Religious Education which recognizes religious plurality while giving preference to an imagination centred on inclusion hospitality and respectful dialogue In this context new pathways are being explored as the reality and significance of Religious Education in faith based school remain a priority for Christian organizations in Australia Mindful of the diversity of expectations within the Catholic school the curriculum initiative of RML was developed supported and implemented The La Salle Academy of the Australian Catholic University reviewed this senior secondary curriculum across three years and presents in this book an independent evaluative report of the findings together with insights for implementation at scale and associated applications across Christian faith based institutions

The Refashioning of Catholicism, 1450-1700 Robert Bireley, 2015-12-31 Unlike the traditional terms Counter Reformation or Catholic Reform this book does not see Catholicism from 1450 to 1700 primarily in relationship to the Protestant Reformation but as both shaped by the revolutionary changes of the early modern period and actively refashioning itself in response to these changes the emergence of the early modern state economic growth and social dislocation the expansion of Europe across the seas the Renaissance and to be sure the Protestant Reformation Bireley devotes particular attention to new methods of evangelization in the Old World and the New education at the elementary secondary and university levels the new active religious orders of women and men and the effort to create a spirituality for the Christian living in the world A final chapter looks at the issues raised by Machiavelli Galileo and Pascal Robert Bireley is a leading Jesuit historian and uniquely well placed to reassess this centrally important subject for understanding the dynamics of early modern Europe This book will be of great value to all those studying the political social religious and cultural history of the period
