Finally the book investigates the impact of bird strikes on different components of aircrafts such as the metal fuselage composite fuselage engines wings and tail and proposes two new bird models with explanations of their use Provides up to date information for aviation staff and researchers working on aircraft safety Offers comprehensive investigations on all the statistical theoretical experimental and numerical aspects of bird strike Includes studies carried out on bird strike and provides the reader with the important findings of each paper

The World Bank Forest Strategy ,2000-01-01 This report assesses progress since the World Bank first issued its comprehensive Forest Strategy in 1991 It finds that the effectiveness of the strategy has been modest and the sustainability of its impact is uncertain The Report identifies seven factors that would make the World Bank forest strategy more pertinent to current circumstances as well as strengthening its ability to achieve its strategic objectives in the forest sector It recommends that the World Bank use its global reach to address mechanisms for mobilisation of concessional international resources outside its normal lending activities It also advises the World Bank to be proactive in establishing partnerships with all relevant stakeholders governments the private sector and civil society to meet both its country and global roles The focus on primary tropical moist forests should be broadened to include all types of natural forests of national and global value The report suggests that illegal logging needs to be reduced through the promotion of improved governance and enforcement Other recommendations are to give consideration to forest issues in all relevant sector activity and macroeconomic work address the employment needs of all poor people while continuing to protect the rights of indigenous people and to realign the World Bank resources with their objectives in the forest sector

University of Illinois (System). Board of Trustees,1928 Global Positioning System Bernhard Hofmann-Wellenhof,Herbert Lichtenegger,James Collins,2012-12-06 This book is dedicated to Dr Benjamin William Remondi for many reasons The project of writing a Global Positioning System GPS book was conceived in April 1988 at a GPS meeting in Darmstadt Germany Dr Remondi discussed with me the need for an additional GPS textbook and suggested a possible joint effort In 1989 I was willing to commit myself to such a project Unfortunately the timing was less than ideal for Dr Remondi Therefore I decided to start the project with other coauthors Dr Remondi agreed and indicated his willingness to be a reviewer I selected Dr Herbert Lichtenegger my colleague from the Technical University Graz Austria and Dr James Collins from Rockville Maryland U S A In my opinion the knowledge of the three authors should cover the wide spectrum of GPS Dr Lichtenegger is a geodesist with broad experience in both theory and practice He has specialized his research to geodetic astronomy including orbital theory and geodynamical phenomena Since 1986 Dr Lichtenegger's main interest is dedicated to GPS Dr Collins retired from the U S National Geodetic Survey in 1980 where he was the Deputy Director For the past ten years he has been deeply involved in using GPS technology with an emphasis on surveying Dr Collins was the founder and president of Geo Hydro Inc My own background is theoretically oriented My first chief Prof Dr Peter Meissl was an excellent theoretician and

Chowdhury, 2010 An information retrieval IR system is designed to analyse process and store sources of information and retrieve those that match a particular user's requirements A bewildering range of techniques is now available to the information professional attempting to successfully retrieve information It is recognized that today's information professionals need to concentrate their efforts on learning the techniques of computerized IR

However it is this book's contention that it also benefits them to learn the theory techniques and tools that constitute the traditional approaches to the organization and processing of information. In fact much of this knowledge may still be applicable in the storage and retrieval of electronic information in digital library environments. The fully revised third edition of this highly regarded textbook has been thoroughly updated to incorporate major changes in this rapidly expanding field since the second edition in 2004 and a complete new chapter on citation indexing has been added. Unique in its scope the book covers the whole spectrum of information storage and retrieval including users of IR and IR options database technology bibliographic formats cataloguing and metadata subject analysis and representation automatic indexing and file organization vocabulary control abstracts and indexing searching and retrieval user centred models of IR and user interfaces evaluation of IR systems and evaluation experiments online and CD ROM IR multimedia IR hypertext and mark up languages web IR intelligent IR natural language processing and its applications in IR citation analysis and IR IR in digital libraries and trends in IR research. Illustrated with many examples and comprehensively referenced for an international audience this is an indispensable textbook for students of library and information studies. It is also an invaluable aid for information practitioners wishing to brush up on their skills and keep up to date with the latest techniques.
