Sundance At Dusk:

Fear and Temptation Terry Goldie,1993 Goldie skillfully reveals the ambivalence of white writers to indigenous culture through an examination of the stereotyping involved in the creation of the image of the Other The treacherous redskin and the Indian maiden embodiments of violence and sex also evoke emotional signs of fear and temptation of white repulsion from and attraction to the indigene and the land Goldie suggests that white culture deeply attracted to the impossible idea of becoming indigenous either rejects native land claims and denies recognition of the original indigenes or incorporates these claims into white assertions of native status After comparing the works of Canadian author Rudy Wiebe and Australian author Patrick White Goldie concludes by linking the results of his literary analysis to wider cultural concerns particularly land rights He shows that literary views of natives both positive and negative emphasize the same characteristics and he suggests that escape from this limited vision may open the door to solving the problems of native sovereignty The
