Illustrations by Adrienne Moore Stephen Gichuru, 1967 Opening a Mountain Steven Heine, 2004-02-26 With the growing popularity of Zen Buddhism in the West virtually everyone knows or thinks they know what a koan is a brief and baffling question or statement that cannot be solved by the logical mind and which after sustained concentration can lead to sudden enlightenment But the truth about koans is both simpler and more complicated than this In Opening a Mountain Steven Heine shows that koans and the questions we associate with them such as What is the sound of one hand clapping are embedded in larger narratives and belong to an ancient Buddhist tradition of encounter dialogues These dialogues feature dramatic and often inscrutable contests between masters and disciples or between masters and an array of natural and supernatural forces rouge priests wild foxes hermits wizards shapeshifters magical animals and dangerous women To establish a new monastery to open a mountain the Zen master had to tame these wild forces in regions most remote from civilization In these extraordinary encounters fingers and arms are cut off pitchers are kicked over masters appear in and interpret each other's dreams and seemingly absurd statements are shown to reveal the deepest insights Heine restores these koans to their original traditions allowing readers to see both the complex elements of Chinese culture and religion that they reflect and the role they played in Zen's transformation of local superstitions into its own teachings Offering a fresh approach to one of the most crucial elements of Zen Buddhism Opening a Mountain is essential reading for anyone seeking to understand the full story behind koans and the mysterious worlds they come from Oceania Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Eric Kjellgren, 2007 Includes detailed chapters devoted to each of the five major cultural regions of the Pacific Australia Melanesia Micronesia Polynesia and the islands of Southeast Asia Odwar vs. the Shadow Queen Shiko Nguru, 2024-11-01 Will Odwar learn the lesson that strength of heart is the most powerful strength of all After their spectacular showdown against the Red Oloibon Odwar and his friends are hoping for a bit of a breather But Odwar has to find his Entasim the powerful heirloom inherited from his warrior ancestor and he has to find it now The Shadow Queen raging with anger at having been trapped in the shadow world for so long has a new target in her sights Can Odwar and his friends stop her from feeding on humanity's darkest emotions and breaking into the light An action packed story of bravery and determination this second book in the monster filled world of a parallel Nairobi shows us that when physical strength fails us strength of heart will conquer all Activate Your Self-Nature DNA Master Guoru, At the age of twelve I took the vows of a novice under Venerable Master Sheng Yen at the Chung Hwa Institute of Buddhist Culture in Beitou Taipei Thus I became his disciple and he became my shifu my teacher When Shifu was in solitary retreat in Meinong in Gaoxiong County Taiwan and later studying for his doctorate in Japan I lived and studied with Grandmaster Dongchu Dongchu was at one time abbot of the large Dinghui Monastery of Jiaoshan in Jiangsu province China Originally called Puji Monastery Dinghui was established in the second century during the Eastern Han Dynasty Even while he was at Dinghui Dongchu was renowned for his imposing demeanor Master Sheng Yen recalled his encounter with Grandmaster in Shanghai When he walked it was as if a powerful wind blew in his wake No novice monk dared to engage him in conversation he often reprimanded his students loudly earning him the nickname of Dong Dapao or Big Cannon Dong However due to the turmoil of the civil war Dongchu left for Taiwan in 1949 and took residence at Fazang Monastery in Beitou where he began publishing Humanity Magazine In 1955 he established the Chung Hwa Institute of Buddhist Culture where he promoted and organized the reprinting of the Taisho Tripitaka conducted wintertime relief charity services for the poor and spread Buddhist culture and education to benefit sentient beings Illusory Abiding Natasha Heller, 2020-05-11 A groundbreaking monograph on Yuan dynasty Buddhism Illusory Abiding offers a cultural history of Buddhism through a case study of the eminent Chan master Zhongfeng Mingben Natasha Heller demonstrates that Mingben and other monks of his stature developed a range of cultural competencies through which they navigated social and intellectual relationships They mastered repertoires internal to their tradition for example guidelines for monastic life as well as those that allowed them to interact with broader elite audiences such as the ability to compose verses on plum blossoms These cultural exchanges took place within local religious and social networks and at the same time they comprised some of the very forces that formed these networks in the first place This monograph contributes to a more robust account of Chinese Buddhism in late imperial China and demonstrates the importance of situating monks as actors within broader sociocultural fields of practice and exchange
