The Forgotten Queens Of Islam:

The Forgotten Queens of Islam Fatima Mernissi, 1993 Mernissi recounts the extraordinary stories of fifteen queens and reflects on the implications for the ways in which politics is practiced in Islam today a world in which women are largely excluded from the political domain

The Forgotten Queens of Islam Fatima Mernissi, 2012 When Benazir Bhutto became Prime Minister of Pakistan in 1988 there were some who claimed that it was a blasphemous assault on Islamic tradition since no Muslim state they alleged had ever been governed by a woman In this extraordinary new book Fatima Mernissi shows that those proclaimed defenders of Islamic tradition were not only misguided but wrong She looks back through fifteen centuries of Islam and uncovers a hidden history of women who have held the reins of power but whose lives and stories achievements and failures have largely been forgotten Who were the Queens of Islam How did they accede to the throne and how did their rule come to an end What kinds of states did they govern and how did they exercise their power Pursuing these and other questions Mernissi recounts the stories of fifteen queens including Sultana Radiyya who reigned in Delhi from 1250 until her violent death at the hand of a peasant the Island Queens who ruled in the Maldives and Indonesia and the Arab Queens of Egypt and of the Shi'ite Dynasty of Yemen It was the Yemenis who bestowed upon queens a title that was theirs alone balgis al sughra or Young Queen of Sheeba Mernissi concludes this absorbing historical inquiry by reflecting on its implications for the ways in which politics is practised in the Islamic world today a world in which women while generally more educated than their predecessors are largely excluded from the political domain

Hidden from History Fatima Mernissi, 1994 Secular and Islamic Feminist Critiques in the Work of Fatima Mernissi Raja Rhouni, 2010 This book presents a detailed critical analysis of the work of Fatima Mernissi Mernissi is considered to be one of the major figures in Feminist thought for both Morocco and Muslim society in general This work discusses Mernissi's intellectual trajectory from secular to Islamic feminism in order to trace the evolution of so called Islamic feminist theory The book also engages critically with the work of other Muslim feminists using frameworks and approaches developed in the works of Muslim reformist thinkers namely Mohammed Arkoun and Nasr Abu Zaid with the aim of engaging the theorization of this emerging Feminism

Jennifer Heath, 2003-11-01 Mezzaterra Ahdaf Soueif, 2012-09-10 Globalisation is happening It is driven by economics ideology and communications But does this have to entail the annexation of chunks of the world by the Great Power of any given moment Surely that is the path to constant conflict to grief and misery There is another way to inhabit and broaden the common ground This is the ground where everybody is welcome the ground we need to defend and to expand It is in Mezzaterra that every responsible person on this planet now needs to pitch their tent This is the ground from which this book is calling Ahdaf Soueif is one of the finest commentators of our time Her clear eyed reporting is syndicated throughout the world and these essays written between 1981 and the present are collected here for the first time They are the direct result of Soueif's own circumstances of being as she puts it like hundreds of thousands of others people with an

Arab or a Muslim background doing daily double takes when faced with their reflection in a western mirror From visiting Palestine and entering the Noble Sanctuary for the first time to interpretations of women who choose to wear the veil and to post September 11th commentary these selected essays are always perceptive fearless intelligent and necessary SIHA Journal: Women in Islam (Issue One) SIHA SIHA,2014-12-29 Women in Islam explores the complexities of gender relations in Muslim communities in the Horn of Africa and beyond engaging critically with the social political and cultural challenges associated with the intersection of Islam and gender With an eclectic selection of essays academic papers opinion pieces and personal narratives punctuated with poetry and art the journal seeks to spark creative and forward looking discussions on how to effectively improve the status of women in Muslim societies Women in Islam is published annually by SIHA the Strategic Initiative for Women in the Horn of Africa Issue One of Women in Islam includes investigations of social issues profiles of inspiring women book and film reviews and opinion pieces The theme of the dossier Unveiling Hijab includes a selection of in depth articles on the hijab and the practice of veiling Highlights include an introduction to the life and work of Amina Wadud a discussion of masculinity and fatherhood in a Muslim context and reflections on what it means to be a moderate Muslim today Islam And Democracy Fatima Mernissi,2009-03-05 Is Islam compatible with democracy Must fundamentalism win out in the Middle East or will democracy ever be possible In this now classic book Islamic sociologist Fatima Mernissi explores the ways in which progressive Muslims defenders of democracy feminists and others trying to resist fundamentalism must use the same sacred texts as Muslims who use them for violent ends to prove different views Updated with a new introduction by the author written in the wake of the September 11 terrorist attacks on the United States Islam and Democracy serves as a guide to the players moving the pieces on the rather grim Muslim chessboard It shines new light on the people behind today s terrorist acts and raises provocative questions about the possibilities for democracy and human rights in the Islamic world Essential reading for anyone interested in the politics of the Middle East today Islam and Democracy is as timely now as it was upon its initial celebrated publication Women and Islam Ibtissam Bouachrine,2014-05-21 Muslim women of all ages economic status educational backgrounds sexual orientations and from different parts of historically Muslim countries suffer the kinds of atrocities that violate common understandings of human rights and are normally denounced as criminal or pathological yet these actions are sustained because they uphold some religious doctrine or some custom blessed by local traditions Ironically while instances of abuse meted out to women and even female children are routine scholarship about Muslim women in the post 9 11 era has rarely focused attention on them preferring to speak of women s agency and resistance Too few scholars are willing to tell the complicated and at times harrowing stories of Muslim women s lives Women and Islam Myths Apologies and the Limits of Feminist Critique radically rethinks the celebratory discourse constructed around Muslim women s resistance It shows instead the limits of such resistance and the restricted agency given women within Islamic societies The book does not center on a single historical period Rather it is organized as a response to five questions that have been central to upholding the resistance discourse What is the impact of the myth of al Andalus on a feminist critique What is the feminist utility of Edward Said s theory of Orientalism Is Islam compatible with a feminist agenda To what extent can Islamic institutions such as the veil be liberating for women Will the current Arab uprisings yield significant change for Muslim women Through examination of these core questions Bouachrine calls for a shift in the paradigm of discourse about feminism in the Muslim world Cover images provided by Tachfine Bouachrine Islam and Asia Chiara Formichi,2020-05-07 An accessible transregional exploration of how Islam and Asia have shaped each other s histories societies and cultures from the seventh century to today
