House. Committee on Banking and Currency. Subcommittee on Domestic Finance, 1971 The Foundation Frederick P. Keppel, 1930 As president of the Carnegie Corporation from 1922 to 1941 Frederick Keppel became a widely respected interpreter of philanthropic foundations First published in 1930 The Foundation became one of his best known works As a brief straightforward and candid discussion of foundations and their activities the volume was rightly praised The book begins with a review of the history of foundations and then goes on to explain the then current organization of the Rockefeller Foundation the Carnegie Corporation the Julius Rosenwald Fund and a number of other trusts It sets forth the purposes and procedures of different types of foundations community foundations like the New York Community Trust as well as grantmaking foundations like the Commonwealth Fund Comparing foundations to universities the book argues that the most essential common purpose of the foundation is the furtherance of learning culture and research It also calls on foundation executives to practice the art of being well informed and urges that informal advisory boards be relied on to provide specialized expertise At the time Keppel became president of the Carnegie Corporation the foundation was still a relatively new type of philanthropic organization It is likely that Keppel had a significant impact on public attitudes toward these new kinds of organizations His administrative style and his effort to find the money necessary to assist as many seekers as possible almost certainly helped remove the distance mystery and in some quarters the hostility that had surrounded foundations He believed that foundations were accountable to the public and he sought constructive criticism Keppel's calls for openness and his service orientation undoubtedly helped define professional foundation practice He understood what had to be accomplished if foundations were to gain an established place in American society and importantly contributed to the processes through which that was achieved THE FIFTEEN LARGEST UNITED STATES FOUNDATIONS United States. Congress. House. Committee on Banking and Currency. Subcommittee on Domestic Finance, 1971 The Foundation 1000, 2006-2007 Foundation Center, 2006-01-01 This leading print resource on the 1 000 wealthiest U S foundations features key facts and analysis of their giving priorities Each profile includes contact information comprehensive program descriptions and the total picture of the funder's grantmaking interests The latest edition includes more than 750 new giving profiles For each of the top 1 000 funders you'll find statement of purpose names of key officials giving limitations current financial data foundation background application guidelines support areas Casebook for The Foundation: A Great American Secret Joel L. Fleishman, J. Scott Kohler, Steven Schindler, 2007-01-23 Unique in all the world the American foundation sector has been an engine of social change for more than a century In this companion volume to The Foundation A Great American Secret Joel Fleishman Scott Kohler and Steven Schindler explore 100 of the highest achieving foundation initiatives of all time Based on a rich array of sources from interviews with the principals themselves to contemporaneous news accounts to internal evaluation reports this volume presents brief case studies of foundation success stories across virtually every field of human endeavor The influence of the foundations on American and indeed global society has only occasionally come into the public view For every well known foundation achievement Andrew Carnegie s massive library building program or the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation s public efforts to curb tobacco use there are a great many lesser known but often equally important stories to be told The cases in this volume provide a wealth of evidentiary support for Joel Fleishman s description of and recommendations for the foundation sector With lessons for grant makers grant seekers public officials and public spirited individuals alike this casebook pieces together 100 stories some well known others never before told and offers hard proof of the foundation sector s immense and enduring impact on scientific research education public policy and many other fields The work that foundations have supported over the past century has achieved profound results Yet foundations are capable of more and better This volume a window onto great successes of the past and present is at once a look back a look around and a point of reference as we turn to the future One Thousand Largest Foundations by Assets, 1987 Foundation Center, 1987
