The Fun Palace An Autobiography:

The Fun Palace Agnes Bernelle,1996 Agnes Bernauer was born in Berlin in 1923 daughter of a renowned Jewish Hungarian theater impresario She made her main contribution to the war effort in the guise of a German radio announcer Vicky the Allied answer to Tokyo Rose Agnes bartered c How to Win an Information War Peter Pomerantsev,2024-03-05 From one of our leading experts on disinformation this inventive biography of the rogue WWII propagandist Sefton Delmer confronts hard questions about the nature of information war what if you can't fight lies with truth Can a propaganda war ever be won In the summer of 1941 Hitler ruled Europe from the Atlantic to the Black Sea Britain was struggling to combat his powerful propaganda machine crowing victory and smearing his enemies as liars and manipulators over his frequent radio speeches blasted out on loudspeakers and into homes British claims that Hitler was dangerous had little impact against this wave of disinformation Except for the broadcasts of someone called Der Chef a German who questioned Nazi doctrine He had access to high ranking German military secrets and spoke of internal rebellion His listeners included German soldiers and citizens as well as politicians in Washington DC who were debating getting into the war And most importantly Der Chef was a fiction He was a character created by the British propagandist Thomas Sefton Delmer a unique weapon in the war Then as author Peter Pomerantsev seeks to tell Delmer's story he is called into a wartime propaganda effort of his own the US response to the invasion of Ukraine In flashes forward to the present day Pomerantsev weaves in what he's learning from Delmer as he seeks to fight against Vladimir Putin's tyranny and lies This book is the story of Delmer and his modern investigator as they each embark on their own quest to manipulate the passions of supporters and enemies and to turn the tide of an information war an extraordinary history that is informing the present before our eyes Joan's Book Joan Littlewood,2016-07-28 Once upon a time the London theatre was a charming mirror held up to cosiness Then came Joan Littlewood smashing the glass blasting the walls letting the wind of life blow in a rough but ready world Today we remember this irresistible force with love and gratitude Peter Brook Along with Peter Brook Joan Littlewood affectionately termed The Mother of Modern Theatre has come to be known as the most galvanising director of mid twentieth century Britain as well as a founder of so many of the practices of contemporary theatre The best known work of Littlewood's company Theatre Workshop included the development and premieres of Shelagh Delaney's A Taste of Honey Brendan Behan's The Hostage and The Quare Fellow and the seminal Oh What A Lovely War This autobiography originally published in 1994 offers an unparalleled first hand account of Littlewood's extraordinary life and career from illegitimate child in south east London to one of the most influential directors and practitioners of our times It is published along with an introduction by Philip Hedley CBE previously Artistic Director of Theatre Royal Stratford East and Assistant Director to Joan Littlewood A History of Artificially Intelligent Architecture Danyal Ahmed,2023-10-23 A History of Artificially Intelligent Architecture Case Studies from the USA UK Europe and Japan 1949 1987 provides a comprehensive survey of architectural projects exhibiting intelligence since the Late First Century right up to the present day Tracing the social scientific and technological developments this book analyses case studies from both conceived and executed architectural projects by Architects and Cyberneticians from the United States United Kingdom Europe and Japan from 1949 87 From the Late First Century through to the Seventeenth Century the scientific endeavors of the Hero of Alexandria Ramon Llull Paracelsus Ren Descartes Jacques de Vaucanson Pierre Jaquet Droz and Charles Babbage have been presented in which they attempted to review analyse and conclude the notion of artificial intelligence Coming to the Twenty First Century and witnessing a period particularly from 1949 87 where nothing had been constant Architects and Cyberneticians whose architectural projects attempted to simulate intelligence include Cedric Price Richard Saul Wurman Nicholas Negroponte Kenzo Tange Arata Isozaki Charles Eames Ezra D Ehrenkrantz Richard Rogers Renzo Piano and Gordon Pask respectively This book asks How have Polymaths Architects and Cyberneticians simulated artificial intelligence in their scientific architectural projects Is it possible to define intelligence purely based on the history of architecture Or on a more extensive level is it possible to view artificial intelligence originating from the history of architecture instead of computational paradigm The transdisciplinarity of the book makes it of interest to researchers and students of technologically advanced architecture s history theory and criticism artificial intelligence cybernetics information and communications urban and sustainable design ergonomics computer applications and digital design and fabrication

The Irish in the Resistance Clodagh Finn, John Morgan, 2024-08-29 You simply couldn t stand by with your arms folded These were the words of Samuel Beckett who famously returned to France from a holiday in Ireland when World War II broke out His clandestine work against the Nazi occupation of Europe is well documented but there were many other ordinary Irish people who joined the underground network Some took up arms Others gathered intelligence sheltered fugitives committed acts of sabotage or broke codes This new history tells the stories of those forgotten Irish men and women Discover Captain John Keany from Cork who parachuted into occupied Italy to help the local Resistance Margaret Kelly the Dublin founder of the world famous Bluebell Girls cabaret troupe in Paris who hid her Jewish husband and Catherine Crean the Irish governess born on Moore Street Dublin who was sent to a concentration camp for helping Allied airmen in Belgium These and many more stories span the course of World War II and remind us of the power of individuals to make a difference An eye opening account of how ordinary people caught up in extraordinary situations helped to fight the Nazis David McCullagh A truly important and groundbreaking book Mary Kenny

British Subversive Propaganda during the Second World War Kirk Robert Graham, 2021-08-11 This book offers the first in depth intellectual and cultural history of British subversive propaganda during the Second World War Focussing on the Political Warfare Executive PWE it tells the story of British efforts to undermine German morale and promote resistance against Nazi hegemony Staffed by civil servants journalists academics and anti fascist European exiles PWE oversaw the BBC European Service alongside more than forty unique clandestine radio stations they maintained a prolific outpouring of subversive leaflets and other printed propaganda and they trained secret agents in psychological warfare British policy during the occupation of Germany stemmed in part from the wartime insights and experiences of these propagandists Rather than analyse military strategy or tactics British Subversive Propaganda during the Second World War draws on a wealth of archival material from collections in Germany and Britain to develop a critical genealogy of British ideas about Germany and National Socialism British propagandists invoked discourses around history morality psychology sexuality and religion in order to conceive of an audience susceptible to morale subversion Revealing much about the contours of mid century European thought and the origins of our own heavily propagandised world this book provides unique insights for anyone researching British history the Second World War or the fight against fascism

Openhearted Ann Ingle, 2021-09-23 SHORTLISTED FOR TWO IRISH BOOK AWARDS Something they don't tell you about getting older is that you fall Oh you hear about it in passing of course She had a fall poor thing Falling is not something you ever think about as a younger woman You think about falling in love At 20 Londoner Ann Ingle fell madly in love with an Irish fellow she met on holiday in Cornwall At the church to arrange their shotgun wedding she discovered that he hadn't even told her his real name Sixty odd years later Ann looks back on that first glorious fall and in a series of essays considers what she has learned from the life that followed bringing eight children into the world their father's years of mental illness and tragic death at 40 being a cash strapped single mother in 1980s Dublin coming into her own in her middle years going to college working and writing and continuing to evolve and learn into her ninth decade even as she accepts the realities of being old Candid about everything that matters love sex heartbreak money class religion mental health rearing children and letting them go reading and writing ageing Open Hearted is a compelling story about living life in a spirit of curiosity and delight and with a willingness to look for good in others _____ By some distance the most courageous most poignant most life affirming memoir I've read in the last twenty years and more Paul Howard Genuinely inspirational I LOVE ANN INGLE Marian Keyes What a beautiful openhearted at times broken hearted memoir honest funny searingly direct a wonderful voice remarkable Joe Duffy Really beautiful Searingly honest astonishingly frank and very very funny Maia Dunphy From the Grand Canal to the Dodder Beatrice M. Doran, 2021-01-18 The Dublin suburbs situated between the Grand Canal and the River Dodder consist of distinct neighbourhoods each with their own character and style It is an area that was and continues to be home to poets writers artists politicians and academics all of whom in their own way contributed to Irish life Those featured include Jack B Yeats artist Mother Mary Aikenhead Founder of the Religious Order Brendan Behan writer and dramatist Mary Lady Heath aviator and international athlete Sophie Bryant mathematician educationist and suffragette James Franklin Fuller architect and Seamus Heaney poet In this book Dr Beatrice M Doran tells of the lives of some of the most fascinating people who once lived on the leafy roads and avenues of this interesting area of the city Architecture, Media, Archives Ana Bonet Miró, 2024-08-22 Over 60 years on from its inception the celebrated Fun Palace civic project developed in the 1960s by the radical theatre director Joan Littlewood and the architect Cedric Price continues to capture the architectural imagination Despite the building itself never being realized much of the previous analysis of the Fun Palace has been devoted to Price and his drawings The critical role that Littlewood played however remains largely unrecognized by architectural scholarship and a whole area of the project s cultural agenda remains overlooked Architecture Media Archives is the first serious study of the complex relations between Littlewood and Price reframing the Fun Palace as an extended media project and positioning Littlewood more clearly as co designer Drawing on extensive archival material the book considers how due to a lack of institutional support the aims of the Fun Palace to transform the passive mass audiences of post war consumer society into active citizens through forms of self directed pleasure led and open exchange were realized through different sites of information throughout the 1960s From broadsheets pamphlets and journals to films and press news the book addresses the conditions of production circulation storage and reception of these sites and reveals how they not only recorded the transformation of the project but also fundamentally enhanced and informed its meaning in specific ways The book also raises important questions about the agency of the Fun Palace archive in shaping the reception of the project in the decades since its inception presenting its analysis through a novel Fun Palace Reception Index and Chart fundamentally altering our view of the project itself and transforming the way in which we understand the technological and cultural production of the 1960s The Jewish Year Book , 1998 The ^AOxford Handbook of the British Musical Robert Gordon, Olaf Jubin, 2016-11-21 The first comprehensive academic survey of British musical theatre from its origins The Oxford Handbook of the British Musical offers both a historical account of musical theatre from 1728 and a range of in depth critical analyses of key works and productions that illustrate its aesthetic values and sociocultural meanings Joan Littlewood Nadine Holdsworth, 2017-12-14 This book uses original archival material to consider the theatrical and cultural innovations of Joan Littlewood and her company Theatre Workshop Littlewood had a huge impact on the way theatre was generated rehearsed and presented during the twentieth century Now reissued Joan Littlewood is the first book to combine an overview of Littlewood s career in relation to the wider social political and cultural context an exploration of Littlewood's theatrical influences approach to actor's training belief in the creative ensemble attitude to text rehearsal methods and use of improvisation a detailed case study of the origins research creative process and thinking behind Littlewood's most famous production Oh What a Lovely War and an assessment of its impact a series of practical exercises designed to capture and illustrate the key approaches Littlewood used in the rehearsal room As a first step towards critical understanding and as an initial exploration before going on to further primary research Routledge Performance Practitioners offer unbeatable value for today's student Joan Littlewood's Theatre Nadine Holdsworth, 2011-04-14 This book investigates Joan Littlewood's theatre productions and her community based projects and activism drawing upon extensive primary archival material Architecture and Ritual Peter Blundell Jones, 2016-08-25 Architecture and Ritual explores how the varied rituals of everyday life are framed and defined in space by the buildings which we inhabit It penetrates beyond traditional assumptions about architectural style aesthetics and utility to deal with something more implicit how buildings shape and reflect our experience in ways of which we remain unconscious Whether designed to house a grand ceremony or provide shelter for a daily meal all buildings coordinate and consolidate social relations by giving orientation and focus to the spatial practices of those who use them Peter Blundell Jones investigates these connections between the social and the spatial providing critical insights into the capacity for architecture to structure human ritual from the grand and formal to the mundane This is achieved through deep readings of individual pieces of architecture each with a detailed description of its particular social setting and use The case studies are drawn from throughout architectural history and from around the globe each enabling a distinct theoretical theme to emerge and showing how social conventions vary with time and place as well as what they have in common Case studies range from the Nuremberg Rally to the Centre Pompidou and from the Palace of Westminster to Dogon dwellings in Africa and a Modernist hospital In considering how all architecture has to mesh with the habits beliefs rituals and expectations of the society that created it the book presents deep implications for our understanding of architectural history and theory It also highlights the importance for architects of understanding how buildings frame social space before they prescribe new architectural designs of their own The book ends with a recent example of user participation showing how contemporary user interest and commitment to a building can be as strong as ever Applied Drama Helen Nicholson, 2014-07-14 This core text offers insight into theatre making that takes place in communities across the world Offering an overview of the theory that underpins practice in applied drama this thought provoking text outlines practices in the context of contemporary political and theoretical concerns It considers the role of artists who work in challenging settings including prisons schools hostels for the homeless care homes for the elderly and on the street In so doing the book poses critical questions about the aesthetics and ethics of applied theatre It also invites debate about the environments in which applied theatre takes place Written by an experienced academic in the field this lively text is the ideal introductory text for students on Applied Theatre degree programmes and those taking Applied Theatre modules on Drama Theatre and Performance Studies programmes It is also essential reading for practitioners of applied theatre looking for a comprehensive insight into theatre making and its impact in an increasingly globalized world

Here Comes the Sun Ken Worpole, 2000-12-01 Here Comes the Sun looks at how social reformers planners and architects in the early twentieth century tried to remake the city in the image of a sunlit ordered utopia While much has been written about architectural modernism Worpole concentrates less on buildings and more on the planning of the spaces in between the parks public squares open air museums promenades public pools and other public leisure facilities Life in the open was of particular concern to early urban planners and reformers with their dreams of release from the confines of overcrowded unsanitary slums Picturing youthful working class bodies made healthy by exercise and tanned by the sun they imagined an escape route from cities Worpole demonstrates how open air public spaces became sought after commissions for many early modernist architects in the early 1900s resulting in the transformation of the European cityscape a fascinating account of the political idealism that informed urban planning for the first two thirds of the twentieth century full of insights into how public space influences a sense of belonging and ownership The Guardian This is one of those books you stroke lovingly Open it and there is page after page of beautiful photographs this book combines history society politics environment and place in a well written and emotive text The strength of the book is the way it crosses these traditional boundaries and disciplines Town and Country Planning Drawing on architectural theories philosophy literature and even film making Worpole s book is wide ranging and erudite and should be of interest to the layperson as well as to the urban planner It is also elegantly written and complemented by a mixture of black and white and colour photographs to provide a visual emphasis to the points he raises N16 Magazine
