The St. Cecilia Master and his circle Richard Offner, 2000 Changing Patrons: Social Identity and the Visual Arts in Renaissance Florence , To whom should we ascribe the great flowering of the arts in Renaissance Italy Artists like Botticelli and Michelangelo Or wealthy discerning patrons like Cosimo de Medici In recent years scholars have attributed great importance to the role played by patrons arguing that some should even be regarded as artists in their own right This approach receives sharp challenge in Jill Burke s Changing Patrons a book that draws heavily upon the author s discoveries in Florentine archives

tracing the many profound transformations in patrons relations to the visual world of fifteenth century Florence Looking closely at two of the city s upwardly mobile families Burke demonstrates that they approached the visual arts from within a grid of social political and religious concerns Art for them often served as a mediator of social difference and a potent means of signifying status and identity Changing Patrons combines visual analysis with history and anthropology to propose new interpretations of the art created by among others Botticelli Filippino Lippi and Raphael Genuinely interdisciplinary the book also casts light on broad issues of identity power relations and the visual arts in Florence the cradle of the Renaissance

Painting in Renaissance Siena, 1420-1500 Keith Christiansen, Laurence B. Kanter, Carl Brandon Strehlke, 1988 Catalog of an exhibition which opened at The Metropolitan Museum of Art on Dec 20 1988 This first comprehensive study in English devoted to Sienese painting to be published in four decades centers on the fifteenth century a fascinating but frequently neglected period when Sienese artists confronted the innovations of Renaissance painting in Florence Two introductory essays survey fifteenth century Sienese painting and individual entries examine 139 key works in exhaustive detail presenting new insights into long debated issues of interpretation and attribution and often utilizing previously unpublished material Most of the major paintings are reproduced in color and supplemented with illustrations of related comparative works A Critical and Historical Corpus of Florentine Painting Richard Offner, 2011 Art and Love in Renaissance

Italy Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Kimbell Art Museum, 2008 Many famous artworks of the Italian Renaissance were made to celebrate love marriage and family They were the pinnacles of a tradition dating from early in the era of commemorating betrothals marriages and the birth of children by commissioning extraordinary objects maiolica glassware jewels textiles paintings that were often also exchanged as gifts This volume is the first comprehensive survey of artworks arising from Renaissance rituals of love and marriage and makes a major contribution to our understanding of Renaissance art in its broader cultural context The impressive range of works gathered in these pages extends from birth trays painted in the early fifteenth century to large canvases on mythological themes that Titian painted in the mid 1500s Each work of art would have been recognized by contemporary viewers for its prescribed function within the private domestic domain

Bonnefantenmuseum, C. E. de Jong-Janssen, 1995 Fashioning Identities in Renaissance Art Mary Rogers, 2019-06-04 Originally published in 2000 Fashioning Identities analyses some of the different ways in which identities were fashioned in and with art during the Renaissance taken as meaning the period c 1300 1600 The notion of such a search for new identities expressed in a variety of new themes styles and genres has been all pervasive in the historical and critical literature dealing with the period starting with Burckhardt and it has been given a new impetus by contemporary scholarship using a variety of methodological approaches The identities involved are those of patrons for whom artistic patronage was a means of consolidating power projecting ideologies acquiring social prestige or building a suitable public persona and artists who developed a distinctive manner to fashion their artistic identity or drew attention to aspects of their artistic personality either in self portraiture or the style and placing of their signature or by exploiting a variety of literary forms Italian Paintings from the Sixteenth Century in Dutch Public Collections Anton Willem Adriaan Boschloo, 1993
