the humble homes below she joined a lawsuit being pursued by attorney Joe Lovett the first case he had ever handled In the case against the U S Army Corps of Engineers Bragg v Robertson federal judge Charles Haden II shocked the coal industry by granting victory to Joe Lovett and Patricia Bragg and temporarily halting the practice of mountaintop removal While Lovett battled in court Bragg sought other ways to protect the resources and safety of coalfield communities all the while recognizing that coal mining was the lifeblood of her community even of her own family her husband is a disabled miner The years of Bragg v Robertson bitterly divided the coalfields and left many bewildered by the legal wrangling One of the state s largest mines shut down because of the case leaving hardworking miners out of work at least temporarily Despite hurtful words from members of her church Patricia Bragg battled on making the two hour trek to the legislature in Charleston over and over to ask for better controls on mine blasting There Bragg and her friends won support from delegate Arley Johnson himself a survivor of one of the coalfield s greatest disasters Award winning investigative journalist Penny Loeb spent nine years following the twists and turns of this remarkable story giving voice both to citizens like Patricia Bragg and to those in the coal industry Intertwined with court and statehouse battles is Patricia Bragg s own quiet triumph of graduating from college summa cum laude in her late thirtie and moving her family out of welfare and into prosperity and freedom from mining interests Bragg s remarkable personal triumph and the victories won in Pie and other coalfield communities will surprise and inspire readers

Christian Register and Boston Observer, 1916 Made to Move Mountains Kristen Welch, 2020-03-03 Life is an incredible journey with ups and downs We soar struggle scale and stumble and often stand at the edge of cliffs afraid to step into the unknown unsure of where we will land But instead of running away we are called by God to stand firm muster up what faith we can and take a step Because we were made to move mountains In this inspiring book Kristen Welch calls you to step out in faith and climb the mountain in front of you not because you are good enough or adequate or able but because God makes a way where there is no way With heartbreaking and hopeful personal stories Scripture and questions for contemplation she draws you out of fear and into a holy confidence showing you that the mountain in your path was put there on purpose so that you could exercise and grow your faith

The Other Side of the Mountain Ali Ahmad Jalali, Lester W. Grau, 1999 When the Soviet Union invaded Afghanistan in 1979 few experts believed that the fledgling Mujahideen resistance movement had a chance of withstanding the Soviet Army in 1989 realizing they were trapped in an unwinnable war where they were suffering death from a thousand cuts by an intractable enemy who had no hope of winning but fought on because it was the right thing to do the Soviet Union withdrew from Afghanistan Few studies of guerrilla warfare from the guerrilla s perspective exist To capture this perspective and the tactical experience of the Mujahideen the United States Marine Corps commissioned this study and sent two retired combat veterans to interview Mujahideen From those interviews has come this work which tells the guerillas story as interpreted by military professionals This is a book about death and survival adaptation and perseverance It provides an understanding of guerrilla field craft tactics techniques and procedures Cornell Science Leaflet ,1925 Cornell Rural School Leaflet ,1927 Bulletins and Other State Intelligence Compiled and Arranged from the Official Documents Published in the London Gazette ,1852
