Life of Musorgsky Caryl Emerson, 1999-09-30 Modest Musorgsky is Russia s greatest musical dramatist When he died in 1881 in St Petersburg at the age of forty two in poverty and relative obscurity he was known for a single opera Boris Godunov and a handful of eccentric realistic songs set to prosaic Russian texts He had no institutional connections no degree

no family of his own not even a permanent address Except for Franz Liszt no composer of stature knew of him outside Russia Through the loyal if controversial intervention of his friends his works survived in various editings into the early twentieth century when revivals and evolving musical tastes restored him to new life This account of his life first published in 1999 emphasizes the psychological and economic factors that contributed to the composer s remarkable rise and tragic premature end and is the first brief biography in English to make use of materials published in the new de Sovietized Russian academic climate

The Dragon Slayer Joni Rovio, The Romance of K'tut Tantri and Indonesia Timothy Lindsey, 2008 This historiographic study of K'tut Tantri alias Vannen Walker the journalist from the Isle of Man Muriel Pearson the unhappy wife and Surabaya Sue the notorious revolutionary compares her romantic and colorful autobiography Revolt in Paradise with other versions of her past including those of her fellow Bali colonists and her revolutionary comrades as well as her foes the Dutch and various intelligence organizations These alternatives accounts of her past question the image of K'tut Tantri as hero portraying her instead as dishonest unstable egotistical and immoral Such criticisms have overshadowed proper recognition of her role in the development of modern Indonesia both as a bohemian hotelier in between wars Bali and later as propaganda broadcaster and adviser to Indonesian revolutionary leaders including Soekarno Sutomo and Syarifuddin Focusing on the nature of biography and autobiography this book analyses K'tut Tantri's self defeating battle to use history in text and film script to define her identity and reappropriate her past An examination of the use of ideas of truth and fiction in understanding the past leads to broader consideration of the nature of history and its uses Finally an attempt is made to reconcile the deconstruction of K'tut Tantri's autobiography with both an acceptance of the validity of alternative historical genres and an acceptance of the problems inherent in writing a history of a living person
