The Forgotten Spurgeon:

The Forgotten Spurgeon Iain H. Murray, 1973 An incisive historical and theological insight into the great 19th century Baptist with emphasis on the doctrines that moulded his life and thought

The Forgotten Spurgeon Iain Hamish Murray, 1973 Making Evangelical History Andrew Atherstone, David Ceri Jones, 2019-04-08 This volume makes a significant contribution to the history of ecclesiastical histories with a fresh analysis of historians of evangelicalism from the eighteenth century to the present It explores the ways in which their scholarly methods and theological agendas shaped their writings Each chapter presents a case study in evangelical historiography Some of the historians and biographers examined here were ministers and missionaries while others were university scholars They are drawn from Anglican Baptist Congregationalist Methodist Presbyterian Fundamentalist and Pentecostal denominations Their histories cover not only transatlantic evangelicalism but also the spread of the movement across China Africa and indeed the whole globe Some wrote for a popular Christian readership emphasising edification and evangelical hagiography others have produced weighty monographs for the academy These case studies shed light on the way the discipline has developed and also the heated controversies over whether one approach to evangelical history is more legitimate than the rest As a result this book will be of considerable interest to historians of religion

The Making of a Maverick Missionary Fiedler, Klaus, 2016-06-13 All Malawians know their national hero the Rev John Chilembwe who in 1915 protested against colonialism with an armed uprising To understand him it is necessary to understand Joseph Booth who baptized him and took him to America in 1897 to study for the Baptist ministry There in America Booth published his Africa for the African to the intense dislike of the colonial administration Booth was an Evangelical missionary but a maverick among them This book explores what made him the odd man out among his fellow missionaries by tracing his and his family's life in Auckland and Melbourne arguing that his political involvement must be understood from his specific Baptist background

Reformed Evangelicalism and the Search for a Usable Past Ian Hugh Clary, 2020-09-07 The question of how theology shapes a Christian historian's reading of the past has been debated thoroughly in various academic periodicals Should historians recognise the role of providence in their accounts of past events Should they sympathise with their subject's theology Can objectivity be lost due to theological bias And last but not least is there a compromise of faith if one writes natural instead of supernatural history Such questions are important for understanding the historian's profession Arnold Dallimore who trained and specialised in pastoral ministry in Canada wrote an influential biography of the revivalist George Whitefield as well as others on Charles and Susanna Wesley Edward Irving and Charles Spurgeon How did his Reformed theological perspective impact his historiography How does his work fit into larger historiographical debates concerning the nature of Christian history While other books look at Christian historiography using abstract and methodological approaches this book examines the subject precisely by looking at the life and work of an individual historian It does so by placing Dallimore in the context of being a minister in twentieth century

Canada as well as his role in the development of Reformed Theology in the Anglosphere It also examines the quality of his various biographies focusing on key issues such as the nature of religious revival the problem of Christianity and slavery and the question of charismatic religious experience His study concludes by examining the relationship between the discipline and profession of church history and asking what is required for one to be considered a church historian Pathways and Patterns in History Peter J. Morden, 2020-10-06 Professor David Bebbington is a highly regarded historian He holds a chair at the University of Stirling has been President of the Ecclesiastical History Society and has delivered numerous endowed lecture series as well as being deeply involved in the Dr Williams s Dissenting Academies Project He is both a popular and influential academic historian whose writings have significantly shaped our thinking about the history of evangelicalism Baptist life and political developments In Pathways and Patterns colleagues former research students and friends who are indebted to Professor Bebbington and value his contribution to scholarship join together to pay tribute to his outstanding work Not only has he stimulated academic endeavour he has also given much personal support not least to those in the Baptist Historical Society and in Colleges among them Spurgeon s College and Baylor University USA where he is a Distinguished Visiting Professor This volume reflects his wide involvements and the grateful esteem in which he is held Among Professor Bebbington s achievements has been both instituting and masterminding the very important International Conference on Baptist Studies ICOBS held every three years in different parts of the world It is appropriate then that this volume was presented to him at the Seventh ICOBS Conference held in Manchester July 2015 The Booming Baritone Bell of England E. G. Romine, 2023-06-15 When the Prince of Preachers steps into the open air the result will change his ministry forever Using Charles Spurgeon s own words as well as contemporary accounts E G Romine digs deep into the legendary pastor s unexamined legacy of open air preaching In The Booming Baritone Bell of England Romine argues that Spurgeon s open air preaching was a profound influence not only on his audience but on Spurgeon himself A thorough and thoughtful exploration of a neglected area of Spurgeon s ministry Romine s exhaustively researched book will appeal to casual readers and scholars alike Truth that Never Dies Nigel G Wright, 2015-03-26 The Dr G R Beasley Murray Memorial Lectures were delivered annually between 2002 and 2012 with the aim of extending the legacy of this significant New Testament scholar and church leader into the twenty first century Themes addressed include baptism ministry preaching mission and theological faithfulness Having first been delivered at the annual Assembly of the Baptist Union of Great Britain the lectures in this volume are now made available to a wider audience and will be of interest to church leaders across the denominations and across the world and not least to those who stand in Beasley Murray s own Baptist tradition George Beasley Murray died in 2000 The lectures cover a wide range of topics from baptism to missions from Evangelical identity to preaching The lecturers are Paul Beasley Murray former Principal of Spurgeon s College David Coffey former President of the Baptist Union and of the Baptist World Alliance John E Colwell Pastor of Budleigh Salterton Baptist Church Anthony R Cross Emeritus

Director of the Centre for Baptist History and Heritage Oxford Ruth M B Gouldbourne former Tutor in Church History at Bristol Baptist College Stephen R Holmes Senior Lecturer at the University of St Andrews Mark Hopkins Associate Professor of Church History Theological College of Northern Nigeria Bruce Milne formerly Minister of First Baptist Church Toronto Michael Quicke former Principal of Spurgeon s College London Brian Stanley Professor of World Christianity University of Edinburgh

I Longed To Gather You Roger Kirkpatrick, 2012-06-07 Modern technology bids us go forward as it rightly should The call of God conversely is and ever will be a call to return In spirituals the true is the tried and proven God calls us to the old paths he calls us back to himself Modern man will find healing for his many ills in no other way In this critical hour of history the call has never been more urgent The downward spiral will not reverse if we continue to ignore God s clarion call Come now let us reason together says the LORD Though your sins are like scarlet they shall be as white as snow though they are red as crimson they shall be like wool If you are willing and obedient you will eat the best from the land but if you resist and rebel you will be devoured by the sword For the mouth of the LORD has spoken Isa 1 18 20 Roger Kirkpatrick

High Calvinists in Action Ian J. Shaw, 2003-02-06 This valuable contribution to the debate about the relation of religion to the modern city fills an important gap in the historiography of early nineteenth century religious life Although there is some evidence that strict doctrine led to a more restricted response to urban problems extensive local and personal variations mean that simple generalizations should be avoided Ian J Shaw argues against earlier prejudiced views and shows that high Calvinists played a vigorous and successful part in the response of early nineteenth century churches to the process of urbanization The study includes six substantial case studies of ministers and their churches in Manchester and London Four high Calvinist ministers are considered with two studies of ministers holding to an evangelical Calvinist doctrine also included to provide instructive contrasts Detailed social analysis of the congregations is based upon extensive use of manuscript and printed sources sermons and local and denominational press

Calvin Versus Hyper-Spurgeonism Edited by J. E. North, 2014-06-13 In 1995 the Rev Iain Murray of the Banner of Truth Trust gave a paper to the Grace Baptist Assembly on the subject of Spurgeon s Battle with Hyper Calvinism That paper much extended was later published in book format by the Banner of Truth Trust with the title of Spurgeon V Hyper Calvinism The Battle for Gospel Preaching In that book Spurgeon is allowed to speak for himself by the many quotations taken from his published sermons in both the New Park Street Pulpit and the Metropolitan Tabernacle Pulpit Use is made in the book of Spurgeon s sermon on the text of Scripture 1 Tim 2 4 Who will have all men to be saved and to come to a knowledge of the truth This book is an answer to that publication It comprises of Three articles A Sermon by John Calvin on 1 Timothy 2 4 A contemporary view of Spurgeon by A J Baxter and an Examination of Spurgeon s exegesis by H L Williams

Theology in Turmoil Alan P.F. Sell, 1998-05-13 In Theology in Turmoil Alan Sell examines the controversy between conservatives and liberals The perennially important question What is the Christian gospel was writes the author thrust to the fore in that debate between theological conservatives and liberals which was at its height between 1890 and 1930 and of which echoes may be heard to this day In this book I seek to trace the roots of this debate to outline its course and draw some lessons from it

A Short History of Global Evangelicalism Mark Hutchinson, John Wolffe, 2012-04-30 This book offers an authoritative overview of the history of evangelicalism as a global movement from its origins in Europe and North America in the first half of the eighteenth century to its present day dynamic growth in Africa Asia Latin America and Oceania Starting with a definition of the movement within the context of the history of Protestantism it follows the history of evangelicalism from its early North Atlantic revivals to the great expansion in the Victorian era through to its fracturing and reorientation in response to the stresses of modernity and total war in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries It describes the movement's indigenization and expansion toward becoming a multicentered and diverse movement at home in the non Western world that nevertheless retains continuity with its historic roots The book concludes with an analysis of contemporary worldwide evangelicalism's current trajectory and the movement's adaptability to changing historical and geographical circumstances

The Mentoring Church Phil A. Newton, 2020-01-06 Ministry Book of the Year The Gospel Coalition 2017 Book Awards The critical missing element in Christian mentoring today the congregation Bringing up future leaders isn't just the job of the pastor but of the whole congregation This is an urgently needed book in churches today R Albert Mohler Jr president of The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary Young emerging leaders of the church many of whom have gone through leadership training and traditional mentorship programs still too often find themselves unprepared for the realities of ministry Many leave the ministry altogether overwhelmed Phil Newton reveals a critical gap single source mentorship is incomplete Mentoring must involve the congregation not just senior pastors in order to bring forth mature resilient leaders prepared for all that ministry entails The solid practical solutions in The Mentoring Church offer churches of any size both the vision for mentoring future leaders and a workable template to follow With insightful consideration of theological historical and contemporary training models for pastor church partnerships Newton is a reliable guide to developing a church culture that equips fully prepared leaders

The Pleasures of God John Piper, 2012-01-17 The author of Desiring God reveals the biblical evidence to help us see and savor what the pleasures of God show us about Him Includes a study guide for individual and small group use Isn't it true we really don't know someone until we understand what makes that person happy And so it is with God What does bring delight to the happiest Being in the universe John Piper writes that it's only when we know what makes God glad that we'll know the greatness of His glory Therefore we must comprehend the pleasures of God Unlike so much of what is written today this is not a book about us It is about the One we were made for God Himself In this theological masterpiece chosen by World Magazine as one of the 20th Century's top 100 books John Piper reveals the biblical evidence to help us see and savor what the pleasures of God show us about Him Then we will be able to
