Ecclesiology and the Franciscan Charism Peter Damian Fehlner, 2023-09-22 This volume of the Collected Essays of Peter Damian Fehlner on Ecclesiology and the Franciscan Charism contains some of the most practical of all of Fehlner's writings. This volume is divided into three parts. In the first we are treated to Fehlner's first reflections on ecclesiology in the wake of Vatican II and his own earlier research into Bonaventure's ecclesiology and Duns Scotus's teachings on grace and personhood. To Fehlner these studies along with his Tractatus de gratia and teaching notes on the mission of the Holy Spirit all from the 1960s contain the rationes seminales of the entirety of his later thought. In part two we find writings mainly from the following two decades on the Conventual Franciscan charism, the ecclesiola, the church in microcosm. Here we can readily discern the radical effects of Fehlner's encounter with Maximilian Kolbe and this volume's close affinity with volume six of this series on St Maximilian Kolbe. In part three of this volume comprising essays from the final fifteen years of his life Fehlner brings his lifetime of prayerful contemplation and research directly to bear upon practical spirituality. In these essays Fehlner's spiritual testament our author presents his Catholic and Franciscan charismatic vision of Christian life. The

Franciscan Order in the Medieval English Province and Beyond Michael Robson, Patrick Zutshi, 2025-10-01

Commemorating John Moorman's immense contribution to Franciscan history across five decades, the essays in this collection reflect upon Moorman's diverse writings on biography, hagiography, history, art, and prosopography. Contributors draw upon Moorman's diaries and his materials for a biographical register of the Franciscans in medieval England. The volume is in tune with recent developments in Franciscan history in general, with a special interest in the English province. This is exemplified by studies on Franciscan iconography, the English province's impact of the wider order, the scholastic enterprise, prosopography, economy, sermons, the application of Canon Law to the debates at the papal court, and the evolution of John Moorman's studies on St Francis and his followers. The Franciscan Story Maurice Carmody, 2008 The Franciscan Story is a varied and engrossing work which spans more than eight centuries. Beginning with St Francis, Maurice Carmody examines how the first Order grew rapidly after the time of St Francis (1182-1226) and how a simple brotherhood became an organised religious order which spread throughout Europe and beyond to implement papal policy in Church reform, missions, higher education, and diplomacy. How disagreements over whether Francis would have approved led to division, and from the sixteenth century onwards how new orders formed: Conventual, Observant, and Capuchin Franciscans, as well as Riformati, Recollects, and Alcantarines. How women of the second Order, founded by Clare of Assisi (1194-1253) and her friend St Francis, have adapted and shared Franciscan ideals in a monastic setting since the thirteenth century. How the third Order, which comprised lay and vowed religious men and women living in community, embraced the same values: a simple lifestyle, respect for creation, and peaceful living in ways that often profoundly influenced the society in which they lived. The Franciscan Story is an in-depth and deeply researched account of a religious movement that has influenced both Church and society in many
