insulin treatments that put schizophrenics in a 90 minute coma In addition he offers sharp insight into natural treatments that showed remarkable results as well as into unexpected recoveries stimulated by tools as simple as a hand mirror At times Worcester may seem brutal at other times its simplicity seems pure and caring There are marvelous successes and times when the facility seems no more than a warehouse for the mentally ill Callaway argues that this history offers lessons about the treatment and options for better treatment of the mentally ill in society today Book jacket House documents ,1893
