The Funny Bugger And Other Tales:

The Funny Bugger and Other Tales Keith Garvey, 1979      High Lean Country Iain Davidson, Andrew Piper, JS Ryan, 2020-07-22 High Lean Country captures the rich history and haunting character of the New England region of northern New South Wales The authors explore how memory of land of family of patterns of life on the other side of the world has influenced the identity of New England They also consider how the high country itself has shaped its people and their sense of regional uniqueness In doing so this book sets a new direction for understanding Australia as a whole Weaving together the histories of human settlement economic social and cultural development as well as interactions with the environment High Lean Country shows how colonial settlers strived for decades to literally create a new England It traces the story of the graduates of Oxford and Cambridge who turned their hands to sheep husbandry and developed a squattocracy the establishment of schools and other institutions and the cultivation of traditional arts It also examines the early colonial bushranging period and a history of not always friendly relations between white settlers and the local Aboriginal population A project of the Heritage Futures Research Centre at the University of New England High Lean Country is a fascinating study of this distinctive Australian high country      The Australian Short Story, 1940-1980 Stephen Torre, 1984      Monterra's Deliciosa & Other Tales & Anna Tambour, 2003 Temptation indulgence exploration and shortcuts Love and compulsion An ocean in Kansas the Magic Lino the real story behind the one told by Robert Louis Stevenson a chef dying of ennui gathering bluebirds paying with candywrap And the greatest story ever told by Asher E Treat of course The glorious chaos of singing prancing perfumed and stinking the dead and the busy tragic and achingly otherwise life itself      In the Flesh and Other Tales of the Biotech Revolution Brian Stableford, 2009-01-01 Most of these ten stories belong to a loosely knit series tracking the potential effects of possible developments in biotechnology on the evolution of global society A master of the SF short story Robert Reginald      The Funny Bugger and Other Stories Keith Garvey, 1989      Australian National Bibliography, 1990      Australian Books in Print 1995 Thorpe, D. W., Staff, 1995-04 This unique reference provides detailed bibliographic information on over 60 000 in print books published in or about Australia or written by Australian authors There are also details on over 3 000 publishers distributors whose titles are represented as well as information on all trade associations literary awards more      Vienna Tales Helen Constantine, 2014-11-13 Situated on the cusp of West and East between the foothills of the Alps and the mighty Blue Danube Vienna has long presented authors with a wealth of material for stories that entertain and intrigue The city's famous quality of life and rich variety of cultural offerings is apparent here at every turn but so too is its darker side whether it be the Viennese obsession with death and decay or the dramatic tragic events of its twentieth century history In stories from the early to mid nineteenth century in particular the city stands for wine women and song for a laid back perhaps somewhat lax outlook on life that is invariably linked to its location as German culture's southernmost centre In more recent tales the theme of the good life and of Vienna's beauty continues but there are very few authors who do not dwell on elements of darkness or melancholy Indeed from the mid twentieth century onward death itself seems to have become literature s preferred guide to the city The collection concentrates on stories set at the city s margins The tales are arranged geographically rather than chronologically around and through the city from west to east and back again We begin and end with Arthur Schnitzler and Joseph Roth two authors already indelibly associated with Vienna but represented here by little known gems translated for the first time Other authors include stars of Vienna s nineteenth century feuilleton journalism Heinrich Laube Ferdinand K rnberger Adalbert Stifter but also the most recent generation of Viennese writers Doron Rabinovici Eva Menasse Dimitr Dinev with tales as yet unknown in English Taproom Tales John Leeds,2007 Short autobiographic stories featuring a cleverly created atmosphere down to inventive believable scenarios and characters
