Jack MacDonald was born on a farm near Fort Frances Ontario on August 14 1923 He was a typical farm kid with an unusually curious mind He did poorly in school but as he grew his natural sense of wonderment about everything around him led to fabulous adventures and a memorable life The story of his childhood is surprising yet engaging while the story of his adulthood is dramatic and exciting Jack was a Canadian Army soldier during World War Two where he was forced to take the lives of a number of the men of Hitler's Wehrmacht Many of those battles are described in vivid detail in this book The memories of the battles he fought in the fields and streets of Holland France and Germany would haunt him for the remainder of his life Despite those horrific memories the love of his family would drive him relentlessly to find success as a businessman after the war was over You will fall in love with the characters in this book You will feel like you are there with them and you will laugh and cry as you become absorbed in the drama of their lives If you enjoy reading about real people in real situations this book is for you The places and historical references in this book are real and accurately portrayed The people in it are fictional but they carry the essence of the author's soul That best portion of a good man's life his little nameless unremembered acts of kindness and of love William Wordsworth      Lifelines Christl Verduyn,1995 Before her death in 1985 at the age of fifty one Marian Engel had published seven novels two collections of short stories and numerous essays and articles Despite this impressive output and various literary honours including a Governor General's Award for her novel Bear Engel's writing has not received the critical attention it deserves A comprehensive study of Engel's body of work Lifelines fills a major gap in Canadian literary criticism      The Builder ,1867      Stalin's Railroad Matthew J. Payne,2010-11-23 The Turkestan Siberian Railroad or Turksib was one of the great construction projects of the Soviet Union's First Five Year Plan As the major icon to ending the economic backwardness of the USSR's minority republics it stood apart from similar efforts as one of the most potent metaphors for the creation of a unified socialist nation Built between December 1926 and January 1931 by nearly 50 000 workers and at a cost of more 161 million rubles Turksib embodied the Bolsheviks' commitment to end ethnic inequality and promote cultural revolution in one the far flung corners of the old Tsarist Empire Kazakhstan Trumpeted as the forge of the Kazakh proletariat the railroad was to create a native working class bringing not only trains to the steppes but also the Revolution In the first in depth study of this grand project Matthew Payne explores the transformation of its builders in Turksib's crucible of class war, race riots, state purges and the brutal struggle of everyday life. In the battle for the souls of the nation's engineers as well as the racial and ethnic conflicts that swirled far from Moscow around Stalin's vast campaign of industrialization, he finds a microcosm of the early Soviet Union.      Rewilding the Urban Frontier Greg Gordon,      The World Don't Owe Me Nothing Honeyboy Edwards, Janis Herbert, Michael Robert Frank, 1997.
