

The painting depicts a woman with long, flowing blonde hair, wearing a vibrant orange-red gown, seated in a room. She is looking out of a large, arched window that looks out onto a landscape with a body of water and a distant castle. The room has a patterned rug and a small table with a vase. The overall style is Pre-Raphaelite, with rich colors and detailed textures.

Burne-Jones Christopher Wood, 1998 A writer and broadcaster on Victorian art offers highlights of the career of Burne Jones one of England's most successful painters and founder of the Pre Raphaelite movement providing a revealing glimpse into the artist's personal charm and incredible talent 200 illustrations 80 in color

Sir Edward Burne-Jones Russell Ash, 1997 Burne Jones the Pre Raphaelite painter and leader of the Aesthetic Movement is celebrated in this biographical art and reference title that reproduces many of his works Born in Birmingham the son of a craftsman Burne Jones showed precocious ability at school At Oxford University he met William Morris where they established a mutual interest in art Their first important influence was that of one of the founding fathers of Pre Raphaelitism Dante Gabriel Rossetti with whom in 1857 they painted murals at the Oxford Union After Oxford his painting career developed and he rapidly established his position as the leader of the Aesthetic Movement Burne Jones also worked for Morris's firm supplying designs for stained glass tapestries tiles and other products including his own illustrations for the celebrated Kelmscott Chaucer

Edward Burne-Jones on Nature Liana De Girolami Cheney, 2021-05-21 This volume studies some of Edward Burne Jones's paintings focusing specifically on his approach to nature both through his observations about the real physical world and through his symbolic interpretations of earthly and celestial realms Burne Jones's appreciation for natural formations grew from his interests in astronomy and geography and was expanded by his aesthetic sensibility for physical and metaphysical beauty His drawings and watercolors carefully recorded the physical world he saw around him These studies provided the background for a collection of paintings about landscapes with flora and fauna and ignited an artistic furor that inspired the imagery he used in his allegorical fantasy and dream cycles about forests winding paths and sweet briar roses This study focuses on two main ideas Burne Jones's concept of ideal and artificial or magical nature expressed and represented in his drawings and paintings and the way in which he fused his scientific knowledge about nature with some of the symbolism in his paintings

Richard Wagner and the Art of the Avant-Garde, 1860-1910 Donald A. Rosenthal,2023-08-14 This book explores the responses of leading European avant garde painters to the operas of Richard Wagner the most influential composer of the late nineteenth century The term avant garde represents a twenty first century evaluation of certain nineteenth century artists working in a variety of advanced styles rather than a phrase the artists applied to themselves Chapters are on individual artists or groups rather than an attempt to survey all of nineteenth century Wagnerian visual art They deal with paintings and drawings inspired by Wagner and his operas not with the composer's larger cultural influence through his writings and personal example Thus artists such as Vincent Van Gogh and Paul Gauguin who knew of Wagner's music and writings but did not depict scenes from his operas are not discussed in detail The emphasis is on the diverse effects Wagner had on the works of leading avant garde artists varying according to their personalities and stylistic interests The period beginning in the 1880s often associated with post Impressionism was characterized by a movement away from realist subject matter to more personal or imaginary themes a general intellectual trend of the fin de siècle Wagner's remote quasi historical or mythological subjects fit well with this escapist tendency in the art and culture of the time in part a return to the Romantic sensibility that was dominant in Wagner's youth Wagner's influence peaked in the period between his death in 1883 and 1900 though a few long lived artists continued their Wagnerian explorations from this era well into the early twentieth century There is no Wagner style in art yet Wagner's pervasive influence is immediately evident in these works Artists whose works are discussed include Eugène Delacroix Henri Fantin Latour Odilon Redon Max Klinger James Ensor Fernand Khnopff John Singer Sargent and Aubrey Beardsley among others The book features 60 art reproductions half of them in color *The Collected Works of W.B.
