Christle,2025-04-15 For readers of Also a Poet Orwell s Roses and My Autobiography Of Carson McCullers as well as the legions of Virginia Woolf fanatics the acclaimed poet and author of The Crying Book crafts a deeply moving immersive and lyrical hybrid memoir about her mother Woolf and the transformative power of writing When Heather Christle realizes that she her mother and Virginia Woolf share a traumatic history she begins to rewrite and intertwine each of their stories in search of a more hopeful narrative and a future she can live with On a recent visit to London s Kew Gardens Christle s mother revealed details of a painful story from her past that took place there under circumstances that strangely paralleled Heather s own sexual assault during a visit to London as a teenager Her private British mother s revelation a rare burst of vulnerability in their strained relationship propels Christle down a deep and destabilizing rabbit hole of investigation as she both reads and wanders the streets of her mother's past peeling back the layers of family mythologies England's sanctioned historical narratives and her own buried memories Over the course of several trips to London with and without her mother she visits her family's birthday hill in Kew Gardens the now public homes of the Bloomsbury set the archives of the British Library and the backyard garden where Woolf wrote her final sentence All the while she finds that Woolf and her writings not only constantly seem to connect and overlap with her mother's story but also that the author becomes a kind of vital intermediary a sometimes confidante sometimes mentor sometimes distancing lens through which Christle can safely observe her mother and their experiences Wide ranging and prismatic the fruit of an insatiably curious delightfully brilliant mind In the Rhododendrons is part memoir part biography of Virginia Woolf part reckoning with the things we cannot change and the ways we can completely transform if we dare This utterly original book will stir readers into new ways of seeing their own lives
