IUTAM Symposium on Advanced Optical Methods and Applications in Solid Mechanics Alexis Lagarde,2006-04-11 The request to organize under its patronage at Poitiers in 1998 a Symposium entitled Advanced Optical Methods and Applications in Solid Mechanics by the International Union of Theoretical and Applied Mechanics I U T A M was well received for the following two reasons First for nearly 20 years no Symposium devoted to optical methods in solids had been organized Second recent advances in digital image processing provided many new applications which are described in the following We have the honour to present here the proceedings of this Symposium st th The Symposium took place from august 31 to September 4 at the Institut International de la Prospective in Futuroscope near Poitiers A significant number of internationally renowned specialists had expressed their wish to participate in this meeting The Scientific Committee proposed 16 general conferences and selected 33 regular lectures and 17 poster presentations Papers corresponding to posters are not differentiated in the proceedings from those that were presented orally It is worth noting that a total of 80 participants representing 16 countries registered for this symposium The Scientific Committee deserves praise for attracting a significant number of young scientists both as authors and as participants Let us add our warm acknowledgements to Professor J W Dally and to Professor A S Kobayashi who throughout the symposium preparation time brought us valuable help

Everyday Products in the Middle Ages Gitte Hansen, Steven Ashby, Irene Baug, 2015-02-05 The medieval marketplace is a familiar setting in popular and academic accounts of the Middle Ages but we actually know very little about the people involved in the transactions that took place there how their lives were influenced by those transactions or about the complex networks of individuals whose actions allowed raw materials to be extracted hewn into objects stored and ultimately shipped for market Twenty diverse case studies combine leading edge techniques and novel theoretical approaches to illuminate the identities and lives of these much overlooked ordinary people painting of a number of detailed portraits to explore the worlds of actors involved in the lives of everyday products objects of bone leather stone ceramics and base metal and their production and use in medieval northern Europe In so doing this book seeks to draw attention away from the emergent trend to return to systems and global models and restore to centre stage what should be the archaeologists most important concern the people of the past
