Standing Alone An American Woman's Struggle For The Soul Of Islam:

Standing Alone Asra Nomani, 2009 Standing Alone in Mecca Asra Nomani, 2005-02-16 A journalist and unwed Muslim mother makes a pilgrimage to Mecca and reflects on the changing status of women in the Muslim religion and the impact of the modern world on the practice of Islam Standing Alone in Mecca Asra Q. Nomani, 2005 American Muslim Women, Religious Authority, and Activism Juliane Hammer, 2012-08-24 Following the events of September 11 2001 American Muslims found themselves under unprecedented scrutiny Muslim communities in the United States suffered from negative representations of their religion but they also experienced increased interest in aspects of their faith and cultures They seized the opportunity to shape the intellectual contribution of American Muslims to contemporary Muslim thought as never before Muslim women in particular often assumed to be silenced oppressed members of their own communities challenged stereotypes through their writing seeking to express what it means to be a Muslim woman in America and carrying out intra Muslim debates about gender roles and women's participation in society Hammer looks at the work of significant female American Muslim writers scholars and activists using their writings as a lens for a larger discussion of Muslim intellectual production in America and beyond Centered on the controversial women led Friday prayer in March 2005 Hammer uses this event and its aftermath to address themes of faith community and public opinion Tracing the writings of American Muslim women since 1990 the author covers an extensive list of authors including Amina Wadud Leila Ahmed Asma Barlas Riffat Hassan Mohja Kahf Azizah al Hibri Asra Normani and Asma Gull Hasan Hammer deftly examines each author's writings demonstrating that the debates that concern American Muslim women are at the heart of modern Muslim debates worldwide While gender is the catalyst for Hammer's study her examination of these women's intellectual output touches on themes central to contemporary Islam authority tradition Islamic law justice and authenticity Toward Respectful Understanding and Witness among Muslims Evelyne A. Reisacher, Joseph L. Cumming, Dean S. Gilliland, 2012-06-28 Fifteen preeminent Christian scholars of Islam present their latest research and reflections The book is organized around three themes encouraging friendly conversation Christian scholarship and Christian witness Published in honor of J Dudley Woodberry it is more than a collection of essays by friends and colleagues It offers a seldom available synopsis of the theories of contemporary leading Christian academicians whose work is currently influencing a wide range of Christian institutions agencies churches and individuals The authors provide cutting edge and greatly needed resources for developing a better understanding of Muslims In an age of increasing challenges facing Muslim Christian relations this volume offers Christians a unique opportunity to rethink their assumptions It also presents practical steps which can inform their daily encounters with Muslims This book is essential reading for people with research interests in Islam for Bible school and seminary students for church leaders and for all those who want to be informed of the latest empirical research and theoretical perspectives affecting Muslim Christian relations Three Perspectives Steven H. Propp, 2009-12 You re

Jewish aren't you This blunt question is the way that college freshman Richard Cohn is introduced to an outspoken fellow student named Dov Epstein who calls himself a Messianic Jew and believes that God has a special purpose for the Jewish people in these Last Days Raised by secular Jewish parents Richard is completely oblivious to his own Jewish background until this ongoing dialogue forces him to confront his own heritage The two young men vigorously argue with each other over the interpretation of the Hebrew Bible particularly its reputed predictions of a Messiah Christian doctrines such as the Trinity and most significantly about the identity and significance of Jesus of Nazareth The rigorous process of self examination this initiates leads Richard to embrace his Jewish identity even as he vehemently denies the same for Dov The two ultimately become fast friends but as they progress from an academic environment to the professional world they are challenged by racist statements made by prominent national figures anti Semitic doctrines such as Christian Identity which teaches that white Anglo Saxons are the true Israel and also purported scholars who deny the reality of the Holocaust itself Circumstances in life connect them with a young Iranian migr named Jahangir Khatami whose Muslim beliefs conflict strongly with their own Yet when a violent incident brings the three of them together they are forced to reexamine not just their differences but their similarities While they clash over the ideals of Zionism and its ramifications in the modern State of Israel they are united in their horror over the terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 Join a diverse cast of characters some of whom appeared in the author's earlier book Beyond Heaven and Earth in a probing exploration that may help you reconsider just what it means to be Jewish Christian or Muslim in the modern world The Columbia Sourcebook of Muslims in the United States Edward E. Curtis, 2009-05-18 Presents a patchwork narrative of Muslims from different ethnic and class backgrounds religious orientations and political affiliations bringing together an unusually personal collection of essays and documents from an incredibly diverse group of Americans who call themselves Muslims Taking Back God Leora Tanenbaum, 2025-10-16 In Taking Back God Leora Tanenbaum recounts the stories of women across the United States starting with herself who love their religion but hate their second class status within it If you've witnessed the preferential treatment of men in America's houses of worship you will not be surprised to learn that there is a surge of women in this country rising up and demanding religious equality More and more religious women Christian Muslim and Jewish are declaring that they expect to be treated as equals in the religious sphere They want the same meaningful spiritual connections enjoyed by their brothers fathers husbands and sons They embrace the word of God but are critical of their faith's male oriented theology and liturgy They reject the conventional interpretations of religious traditions that give women a different and to their minds lesser status Rather than abandoning their faith they are taking it back and making it stronger transforming religion while maintaining tradition Tanenbaum relates the experiences of Catholics evangelical and mainline Protestants Muslims and observant Jews The conflict they face honoring tradition while expanding it to synchronize with modern values is ultimately one that all people of faith grapple with today Lovescares, Mapping the Geography of Love Duncan S. Ferguson, 2012-12-06 Lovescapes introduces the reader to the various meanings and manifestations of love and its many cognates such as compassion caring altruism empathy and forgiveness It addresses how love and compassion have been understood in history and the religions of the world It goes on to explore the ways that our environments and heredity influence our capacity to love and suggests ways to cultivate love and compassion in one's life The book shows how the values of love and compassion are integral to finding humane solutions to the daunting problems we face as individuals as a human family and as an earth community a world in crisis Lovescapes has the following features Describing how love is the essence of the divine and therefore the ground of reality Understanding the meaning of love and its place in our lives Learning how love and compassion have been understood across history culture and tradition Gaining insight about how to increase our capacity to love and show compassion Discerning how love and compassion can be applied in all aspects of our lives in the regions where we live and in our global setting
