Standing On A Volcano:

Standing on a Volcano Harper Barnes, 2001 Standing on a Volcano The Life and Times of David Rowland Francis is a biography of a fascinating man and a long needed major reassessment of a controversial and important figure in U S Soviet Relations BOOK JACKET

Paternalism in a Southern City Edward J. Cashin, Glenn T. Eskew, 2001 These essays look at southern social customs within a single city in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries In particular the volume focuses on paternalism between masters and slaves husbands and wives elites and the masses and industrialists and workers How Augusta s millworkers homemakers and others resisted exploited or endured the constraints of paternalism reveals the complex interplay between race class and gender One essay looks at the subordinating effects of paternalism on women in the Old South slave free black and white and the coping strategies available to each group Another focuses on the Knights of Labor union in Augusta With their trappings of chivalry the Knights are viewed as a response by Augusta s white male millworkers to the emasculating maternalism to which they were subjected by their own wives and daughters and those of mill owners and managers Millworkers are also the topic of a study of mission work in their communities a study that gauges the extent to which religious outreach by elites was a means of social control rather than an outpouring of genuine concern for worker welfare Other essays discuss Augusta s aristocracy of color who had to endure the same effronteries of segregation as the city s poorest blacks the role of interracial cooperation in the founding of the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church as a denomination and of Augusta s historic Trinity CME Church and William Jefferson White an African American minister newspaper editor and founder of Morehouse College The varied and creative responses to paternalism discussed here open new ways to view relationships based on power and negotiated between men and women blacks and whites and the prosperous and the poor

On Distant Service Susan M. Stein, 2020-07-01 On July 18 1924 a mob in Tehran killed U S foreign service officer Robert Whitney Imbrie His violent death the first political murder in the history of the service outraged the American people Though Imbrie s loss briefly made him a cause c l bre subsequent events quickly obscured his extraordinary life and career Susan M Stein tells the story of a figure steeped in adventure and history Imbrie rejected a legal career to volunteer as an ambulance driver during World War I and joined the State Department when the United States entered the war Assigned to Russia he witnessed the October Revolution fled ahead of a Bolshevik arrest order and continued to track communist activity in Turkey even as the country s war of independence unfolded around him His fateful assignment to Persia led to his death at age forty one and set off political repercussions that cloud relations between the United States and Iran to this day Drawing on a wealth of untapped materials On Distant Service returns readers to an era when dash and diplomacy went hand in hand
