Beginnings Again J. Lesley Graham,2017-08-31 People became colonists on newly opened frontier worlds for a wide variety of reasons Most wanted a new beginning Some wanted the adventure frontier worlds promised A few wanted to escape their ugly problems on their home worlds Potential colonists underwent a thorough background check including a criminal investigation They were also forced to pay hundreds of credits as an immigration fee The Samuel Wiggins Immigration Adventure was different The colonists were desperate to get away from their current situations The vast majority of them had fought long vicious wars before being evacuated from their home worlds They were sequestered in a prison camp on a gray world where its gray silicon based indigenous life forms had a taste for carbon based life forms Samuel Wiggins made them an offer that seemed like an answer to prayer He would transport them to their new world and provide all of the equipment and supplies they would need He would also give each one 200 credits they could spend on anything they wanted Excitement turned to depression early on in their flight to their new world That was after they learned Samuel Wiggins was a drug lord and his Immigration Adventure was nothing more than setting up a huge drug manufacturing operation Worse their new home world was classified code Blue unsuitable for human colonization Things turned downright scary after they arrived at the planet and an overwhelming number of starships attacked the starship transporting their spaceships The starship jumped back into Hyper flight flew across the galaxy and down a spiral arm When the starship reappeared in normal space it was out in the middle of a dark nowhere without any chance of flying back to civilization Would the severely damaged starship be able to fly to a star system Would they find a planet that they could colonize

The White Shaman Mural Carolyn E. Boyd, Kim Cox, 2016-11-29 Winner Society for American Archaeology Book Award 2017 San Antonio Conservation Society Publication Award 2019

The prehistoric hunter gatherers of the Lower Pecos Canyonlands of Texas and Coahuila Mexico created some of the most spectacularly complex colorful extensive and enduring rock art of the ancient world Perhaps the greatest of these masterpieces is the White Shaman mural an intricate painting that spans some twenty six feet in length and thirteen feet in height on the wall of a shallow cave overlooking the Pecos River

In The White Shaman Mural Carolyn E Boyd takes us on a journey of discovery as she builds a convincing case that the mural tells a story of the birth of the sun and the beginning of time making it possibly the oldest pictorial creation narrative in North America Unlike previous scholars who have viewed Pecos rock art as random and indecipherable Boyd demonstrates that the White Shaman mural was intentionally composed as a visual narrative using a graphic vocabulary of images to communicate multiple levels of meaning and function Drawing on twenty five years of archaeological research and analysis as well as insights from ethnohistory and art history Boyd identifies patterns in the imagery that equate in stunning detail to the mythologies of Uto Aztecan speaking peoples including the ancient Aztec and the present day Huichol This paradigm shifting identification of core Mesoamerican beliefs in the Pecos rock art reveals that a shared ideological universe was already firmly established among foragers living in the Lower Pecos region as long as four thousand years ago
