

STARTING YOUR SMALL GRAPHIC DESIGN STUDIO

STARTING a design studio can be a great adventure — especially when you understand and anticipate the situations you'll meet and work them out before you start.

That's what you'll do here. This book takes you step by step through everything you'll need to start out on the right foot — and stay on track once you've opened your studio door. You'll find plenty of practical and creative ideas for every aspect of owning your own studio, even if your staff of designers is just you.

INSIDE THE PAGES OF THIS BOOK YOU'LL FIND:

- Self-tests to tell you if you're ready for your own studio
- Worksheets for planning your business
- Forms, self-promotion pieces and planning materials from actual designers
- 21 case histories from designers offering nuts-and-bolts information — not only on how they got started, but how they keep their studios operating
- Sidebars focusing on a variety of specialized areas of interest
- Much, much more

While certainly an exciting adventure, your new enterprise does not have to be a perilous ride down dangerous waters. While it's true that, without the right directions, you could easily lose your way, you won't — not with this book. It's your "traveler's guide"; use it to make the most of this wonderful and thrilling journey.
