Teaching Literature Nine To Fourteen:

Teaching literature Michael Benton, Geoff Fox, 1985 Learning with Literature in the Canadian Elementary Classroom Joyce Bainbridge, Sylvia Joyce Pantaleo, 1999-11 Grade level 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 k p e i t Teaching English Don Gutteridge, 2000 Donald Gutteridge describes the unique way we read poetry and fiction and offers concrete ideas about how English can be best taught in schools He argues that students should read literature in the same spirit in which it is written aesthetically Similarly students should be encouraged to create their own stories and poems through a poetic writing process Teaching English presents six aesthetics based principles for teaching literature and includes sample lesson plans and annotated lists of resources Drawing on recent work in psycho linguistics rhetoric an learning theory Teaching English offers a refreshing method for bringing students closer to the English language Challenges of Literary Texts in the Foreign Language Classroom Lothar Bredella, Werner Delanoy, 1996 Choosing and Using Fiction and Non-Fiction 3-11 Margaret Mallett, 2019-10-30 Choosing and Using Fiction and Non Fiction 3 11 is a guide for primary teachers to the many kinds of texts children encounter use and enjoy in their nursery and primary school years providing an invaluable insight into the literature available Addressing important issues and allowing for the voices of teachers reviewers and children to be heard it contains suggestions of best practice which offer a more creative approach to learning Including both fiction and non fiction with genres ranging from picturebooks to biographies this fully updated second edition features New coverage on recent books Discussion of new changes in concepts of literacy particularly focused on technological advances in moving image media and virtual worlds The balance between print and screen based texts on developing children s visual and multimodal literacy Annotated booklists for each genre for different age groups New sections on equality diversity and translation Exploring fiction non fiction and poetry Choosing and Using Fiction and Non Fiction 3 11 is an invaluable resource supporting teachers as they help children on their journey to becoming insightful and critical readers of non fiction and sensitive and reflective readers of fiction Poetry and Sustainability in Education Sandra Lee Kleppe, Angela Sorby, 2022-08-23 This edited collection offers educators at all levels a range of practical and theoretical approaches to teaching poetry in the context of environmental sustainability The contributors are keenly aware of the urgency facing the planet s ecosystems ecosystems which include all of us and this volume makes the case that teaching poetry is not a luxury Each of the book s three sections works from a specific angle and register Part I focuses on pragmatic approaches to classroom activities and curricular choices Part II considers policies and politics including the role of the UN s Education for Sustainable Development ESD program and Part III takes a widescreen view exploring the philosophical issues that arise when poems are integrated into sustainability curricula This book exemplifies how poetry empowers readers to think imaginatively about how to sustain and why to sustain our world its resources and its beauty The Primary English Encyclopedia Margaret Mallett, 2017-02-24 This newly updated user friendly Primary English Encyclopedia addresses all aspects of the primary English curriculum and is an invaluable reference for all training and practising teachers. Now in its fifth edition, entries have been revised to take account of new research and thinking. The approach is supportive of the reflective practitioner in meeting National Curriculum requirements in England and developing sound subject knowledge and good classroom practice. While the book is scholarly, the author writes in a conversational style and includes reproductions of covers of recommended children's books and examples of children's writing and drawing to add interest. The encyclopedia includes over 600 entries, many expanded and entirely new for this edition, including entries on apps, blogging and computing; short definitions of key concepts; input on the initial teaching of reading, including the teaching of phonics and the other cue systems; extended entries on major topics such as speaking and listening, reading, writing, drama, poetry, non-fiction, bilingualism and children's literature; information on new literacies and new kinds of texts for children; discussion of current issues; and input on the history of English teaching in the primary years. Extended entries on gender and literacy, important references for each topic, advice on further reading, and accounts of recent research findings and a Who's Who of Primary English and lists of essential texts are updated for this new edition. This encyclopedia will be ideal for student teachers on BA and PGCE courses preparing for work in primary schools and primary school teachers. Anyone concerned with bringing about the informed and imaginative teaching of primary school English will find this book helpful and interesting.

Literacy and Language in the Primary Years Jane Medwell, David Wray, 2013-10-31 Linking the development of reading, writing, speaking and listening, this book offers a distinctive holistic approach to literacy and language acquisition. It emphasizes the value of active collaborative learning and includes sections on literacy across the primary curriculum, new technology and assessment. Each chapter is linked to a component of the National Curriculum Programme and contains points of interest, sources of further information and suggestions for follow-up activities in the classroom.

Rethinking Secondary Education Scherto Gill, Garrett Thomson, 2014-01-14 This is a timely, accessible and engaging book of considerable intellectual stature, bold imagination and practical wisdom. Not only does it develop penetrating, elegant analyses of what is wrong with current state-controlled and alternative approaches to contemporary education, it also offers imaginative, practical suggestions for a more fulfilling, human-centred alternative. Professor Michael Fielding, Institute of Education, University of London, UK. With great sensitivity and force and in wonderfully clear prose, Scherto Gill and Garrett Thomson explore some fundamental questions about what we want from our education system and what we can expect from it. It is highly recommended for all who are interested in education, whether from a more theoretical point of view or from a more practical point of view. Professor Adrian W. Moore, Faculty of Philosophy, University of Oxford, UK. Could we have a system of secondary education that provides alternatives to the current mainstream schooling and its emphasis on exams, learning outcomes and the delivery of a fixed curriculum? How could such a system focus on both human and educational values? How could secondary education combine the personal development of students with good academic standards? In response to these questions Gill and Thomson have written a new cutting edge text aimed at all those involved in the study of education or teacher training Rethinking Secondary Education explores debates and critiques new and alternative approaches to teaching young people today The book discusses a human centred approach to curriculum pedagogy assessment and the culture of schools and colleges It is grounded in theory and empirical research discussing the need for a curriculum for the future bridging a gap between mainstream and alternative education It also offers practical guidance on how these ideas can be put into practice making it an ideal resource for trainee teachers experienced practitioners and students of education alike

Key features of the text

- A balanced approach comparing and contrasting both traditional and alternative approaches to education
- Strong grounding in theory and research
- The inclusion of young people's perspectives and voices on their education and on being an adolescent
- Links to practice showing how the theory and research can actually be put into practice to bring about change

Writing to Learn Fred Sedgwick, 2002-01-04 Writing to Learn looks at how poetry can be used as an enjoyable way to teach literacy across the curriculum It includes remarkable poems and stories by children as well as clear descriptions of how to teach creatively within the framework of the National Literacy Strategy The book goes through the primary curriculum subject by subject Poetry and Science and Maths Poetry and Personal Social and Moral Education Poetry and Art and Music Poetry and Religious Education Poetry for its Own Sake The author includes advice on different ways children can compose their writing and how computers can be a valuable aid to children's writing examples of published poetry and how it can be used to stimulate good writing advice on bringing writers into schools and publishing school anthologies This book will prove invaluable to teachers and parents keen to teach writing whilst seeing children as active and critical learners It shows that if we expect great things from children in writing we get them
