Teaching Morality And Religion:

Teaching Morality and Religion Alan Harris, 2018-12-07 First published in 1976 It can be argued that both moral and religious education are undervalued in schools The author Alan Harris believes that too many people think of them as indoctrinatory subjects with moral educators telling people what they ought to do and religious educators telling them what they ought to believe By a combination of practical examples of both good and bad teaching from the classroom and clear analytical examination of what is meant by moral and religious education the author shows that the object of both subjects should be to help pupils form their own judgements The Use of Motives in Teaching Morals and Religion Thomas Walton Galloway, 1917

Whose Kids Are They Anyway? Raymond R. Roberts, 2010-11-01 Raymond R Roberts makes a liberal case for teaching religion and morality in public schools by first examining the intersection of religion and public education He shows how proposals for moral education in public schools are shaped by definitions of religion He argues that the public education s critics overstate the failures of public education because they examine public schools in isolation from negative trends in the family the economy the media etc From there he describes how a theory of spheres of influence gives us a better perspective from which to understand public education including its relationship with religion Speaking of

Teaching Gabriel Moran, 2010-02-01 Speaking of Teaching Lessons from History focuses on teaching as a fundamental act of all human beings viewing the question of teaching through the lens of five famous thinkers and two contemporary problems Moran argues that teaching is not given the attention that it deserves and proposes to situate school teaching in the context of many forms of teaching Tracing the history of the idea of teaching from Socrates to Wittgenstein in the first several chapters this book also examines the intricacies of teaching morality and religion showcasing society s ambivalence about teaching The Use of Motives in Teaching Morals and Religion Thomas Walton Galloway, 1918

Pamphlets on British Education, 1714-1873, 1846 The True Remedy for the Evils of the Age John Howard Hinton, Julius Charles

Hare, Richard Dawes, Thomas Wrigley, W. Fletcher, William Fraser, 1847 Learning Morality, Inequalities, and Faith Hansjörg Dilger, 2021-12-16 Examines how learning and teaching morality in Tanzania s faith oriented schools is inextricably interwoven with the complex power relations of an interconnected world "Moral Order" and The Criminal Law O.

Lee, T.A. Robertson, 2012-12-06 XIV Seen as a whole however I regard the work before us to be especially noteworthy precisely because of its illumination of both the social contexts surrounding the law and the ideas which underlie the efforts towards criminal law reform An analysis of this kind has not appeared until now to my knowledge even in the German literature on the subject so that this book is of great value to the German reader as well as the American B Particulars In Chapter IV A the authors give a general introduction into the development of the German criminal law reform In that connection they recognize the special role of the Christian Democratic CDU Socialist SPD coalition in the political situation leading to passage of the reform law The authors emphasize the importance of the introduction of a uniform prison sentence that is to say the termination of the distinction between kinds of prison sentences and the elimination of short term prison sentences as the main points of the reform in the general part of the code They remark pages 170 192 that a uniform concept of the goal of punishment is still lacking although when all is said there is a general agreement on the principle of resocialization Indian Moral Instruction and Caste Problems Alexander Hay Benton, 1917
