THREE STEPS TO IMPROVE INSTRUCTION

Teaching The Argument In Writing

Margaret Sheehy, Donna M. Scanlon

Teaching The Argument In Writing:

Teaching the Argument in Writing Richard Fulkerson, 1996 Focuses on how to teach analyze and assess arguments Gives clear examples introducing terms from informal logic naming particular fallacies and analyzing samples of student writing to show the various approaches to argument being discussed

Teaching Argument Writing, Grades 6-12 George Hillocks Jr, 2011 Offers teaching strategies and resources to instruct sixth through twelfth graders on how to prepare and write strong arguments and evaluate the arguments of others providing step by step guidance on arguments of fact judgment and policy and including advice to help students understand how judgments get made in the real world how to develop and support criteria for an argument and related topics

Teaching and Learning Argumentative Writing in High School English Language Arts Classrooms George Newell, David Bloome, Alan Hirvela, 2015-06-05 Focused on the teaching and learning argumentative writing in grades 9 12 this important contribution to literacy education research and classroom practice offers a new perspective a set of principled practices and case studies of excellent teaching The case studies illustrate teaching and learning argumentative writing as the construction of knowledge and new understandings about experiences ideas and texts Six themes key to teaching argumentative writing as a thoughtful multi leveled practice for deep learning and expression are presented teaching and learning argumentative writing as social practice teachers epistemological beliefs about argumentative writing variations in instructional chains instructional conversations in support of argumentative writing as deep learning and appreciation of multiple perspectives contextualized analysis of argumentative writing and the teaching and learning of argumentative writing and the construction of rationalities

The Argument Writing Toolkit Sean Ruday, 2015-07-16 In order for students to write effective arguments they need to read good arguments In this practical book you ll find out how to use mentor texts to make writing instruction more meaningful authentic and successful Author Sean Ruday demonstrates how you can teach middle school students to analyze the qualities of effective arguments and then help them think of those qualities as tools to improve their own writing You ll learn how to Introduce high interest topics to students to get them interested and engaged in argument writing Teach students to look at multiple sides of an issue and critically evaluate evidence to construct informed defensible arguments Make argument writing an interactive student driven exercise in which students pursue their own writing projects Use mentor texts to help students learn the core concepts of argument writing and apply those skills across the curriculum The book is filled with examples and templates you can bring back to the classroom immediately as well as an annotated bibliography which links the concepts in this book to the corresponding Common Core State Standards Blank templates are also available as printable eResources on our website <http://www.routledge.com/9781138924390>

The On-Your-Feet Guide to Teaching Argument Writing Michael W. Smith, Jon-Philip Imbrenda, 2019-07-25

Teaching Arguments Jennifer Fletcher, 2023-10-10 No matter where students lives lead after graduation one of the most essential tools we can teach them is how to comprehend analyze and respond to arguments Students need to know how writers and speakers choices are shaped by elements of the rhetorical situation including audience occasion and purpose In Teaching Arguments Rhetorical Comprehension Critique and Response Jennifer Fletcher provides teachers with engaging classroom activities writing prompts graphic organizers and student samples to help students at all levels read write listen speak and think rhetorically Fletcher believes that with appropriate scaffolding and encouragement all students can learn a rhetorical approach to argument and gain access to rigorous academic content Teaching Arguments opens the door and helps them pay closer attention to the acts of meaning around them to notice persuasive strategies that might not be apparent at first glance When we analyze and develop arguments we have to consider more than just the printed words on the page We have to evaluate multiple perspectives the tension between belief and doubt the interplay of reason character and emotion the dynamics of occasion audience and purpose and how our own identities shape what we read and write Rhetoric teaches us how to do these things Teaching Arguments will help students learn to move beyond a superficial response to texts so they can analyze and craft sophisticated persuasive arguments a major cornerstone for being not just college and career ready but ready for the challenges of the world

Argument Writing as a Supplemental Literacy Intervention for At-Risk Youth Margaret Sheehy, Donna M. Scanlon, 2021-11-28 This volume details the development and initial evaluation of a supplemental literacy course intended to support at risk high school students in the US Developed using design based research DBR the course combines argument writing and knowledge building literacy routines to support academic literacy development Acknowledging the demand for US students to meet academic literacy standards that emphasize explanatory and argumentative writing the text foregrounds knowledge building as key to effective writing development Chapters trace the development and implementation of course literacy routines designed using DBR and use whole class and individual case studies to demonstrate how informational reading discussion and argument writing become an activity system to support literacy development Ultimately the text has important implications for literacy course design and the use of knowledge building analysis and DBR in research The text will benefit researchers academics and educators in higher education with an interest in academic literacy education writing and composition and secondary education more broadly Those specifically interested in methodologies relating to classroom teaching and learning as well as argumentation and argument writing will also benefit from this book
