Teaching With Power Shared Decision Making And Classroom Practice:

Teaching with Power Carol J. Reed, 2000 Discusses the issues involved in teachers gaining more input into the educational process The Power of Protocols Joseph P. McDonald, Nancy Mohr, Alan Dichter, Elizabeth C. McDonald, 2015-04-26 The use of protocols has spread from conferences and workshops to everyday school and university settings Featuring seven protocols this teaching and professional development tool is useful for those working with collaborative groups of teachers on everything from school improvement to curriculum development to teacher education at all levels The Competent Classroom Allison Zmuda, 2001-01-01 Describes the cross disciplinary journey of two high school teachers trying to align curriculum assessment and performance standards in their classrooms With a focus on the importance of constantly inspiring students the authors troubleshoot issues surrounding content standards instructional objectives and the aims of curriculum The Comprehensive High School Today Floyd M. Hammack, 2004 Hammack has gathered a distinguished group to assess current reform efforts in their sociological and historical context taking into account the vision of James B Conant the major proponent of the comprehensive high schools Contributors are Mary Erina Driscoll Joseph P McDonald Jeannie Oakes John L Rury Roger Shouse Amy Suart Wells The Teaching Career John Goodlad, Timothy McMannon, 2014-04-15 Featuring a group of expert contributors this book details the complexities of not only preparing teachers for the classroom but also helping them to succeed in the profession itself Addressing topics of vital importance to new and veteran teachers this authoritative volume Explains how to build a strong sense of self to help teachers weather the inevitable storms they face in the field such as state mandates district directives and parental pressures Investigates highly regarded programs for new teachers analyzing orientations seminars and mentorship programs Discusses how to bring together stakeholders to renew teacher preparation induction and professional development Addresses the crucial role of teacher unions and how they are helping to make teaching a more attractive career And much much more Contributors Richard E Barnes Sheldon Berman Sharon Feiman Nemser Thomas Gillett John I Goodlad Paul E Heckman Daniel Katz Corinne Mantle Bromley Nancy Jean Sahling Roger Soder Adam Urbanski Patricia A Wasley Betty Lou Whitford Richard Wisniewski These thoughtful and provocative essays contribute to our understanding of ways to renew and sustain good teaching Anyone interested in matters of teacher induction professional development college school partnerships and the role of higher education in teacher development will find these essays a necessary read David G Imig President and CEO American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education John Goodlad and Timothy McMannon have captured many of the issues state board members are grappling with as they pursue the goal to have a highly qualified teacher in every classroom every day As states track and modify policies on program approval licensure recruitment and retention this work will help to inform their deliberations Brenda Welburn Executive Director National Association of State Boards of Education The Networked Teacher Kira J. Baker-Doyle, 2011 New teachers need support from their peers and mentors to locate resources information new ideas emotional support and inspiration This timely book explains the research and theory behind social networks face to face and online describes what effective social networking for educators looks like reveals common obstacles that new teachers face in establishing support networks and offers valuable practical advice The author follows the stories of four first year teachers illustrating the significant impact that social support networks can have on teachers lives and challenging common misconceptions of professional support This book offers action guides to help teachers become intentional networkers including a companion website with tools for networking and collaboration This is a must have resource for pre and in service teachers Book Features Research based frameworks on teachers social networks and professional support Suggestions for mentors teacher educators and school administrators on how to help new teachers to effectively develop their social networks A companion website that will offer discussion forums resources and networking tools Dr Baker Doyle s book adds an interesting and timely facet the role of social networks to the always important discussions about how new teachers can excel in their work Her research will be of value to those who do professional development with educators and to practitioners alike Susan Fuhrman President of Teachers College Columbia University and the National Academy of Education Without question this book is a major contribution to the public and academic conversation on school reform and teacher development But more importantly it is destined to improve the professional life of any teacher that reads it Marc Lamont Hill Teachers College Columbia University

Teachers Caught in the Action

Ann Lieberman,Lynne Miller,2001-04-27 Because what we do in staff development can best be understood in terms of Contexts Strategies and Structures the remainder of the book features distinguished educators who write from their own unique experiential and theoretical stances Jacqueline Ancess describes how teachers in New York City secondary schools increase their own learning while improving student outcomes Milbrey W McLaughlin and Joel Zarrow demonstrate how teachers learn to use data to improve their practice and meet educational standards Lynne Miller presents a case study of a long lived school university partnership Beverly Falk recounts stories of teachers working together to develop performance assessments to understand their student s learning to re think their curriculum and much more Laura Stokes analyzes a school that successfully uses inquiry groups There are further contributions including some from novice teachers by Anna Richert Ershler Ann Lieberman Diane Wood Sarah Warshauer Freedman and Joseph P McDonald These powerful exemplars from practice provide a much needed overview of what matters and what really works in professional development today
