DEVRIES,2025-04 The Miracles of Jesus Timeless Teachings of Jesus is a deeply reflective and engaging devotional journey through the supernatural works of Jesus Christ as recorded in the New Testament Using The Message translation for its vivid and relatable storytelling exploring over 40 miracles performed by Jesus From turning water into wine at Cana to raising the dead and His own resurrection and ascension Each chapter centers on a specific miracle offering scriptural context historical and cultural background and spiritual reflections aimed at connecting these ancient acts to modern faith The book highlights Jesus authority over nature sickness demons and death while emphasizing recurring themes of compassion divine timing and the transformative power of faith A unique feature of the book is its continual reminder that belief often precedes the miracle what the author calls faith before the facts are seen Through both well known and lesser discussed miracles readers are invited to examine their own trust in Jesus and His continuing work in the world today The Miracles of Jesus serves not only as a biblical study but also as a source of inspiration and encouragement for readers seeking divine intervention or a deeper connection with God Bibliographies on the Life and Teachings of Jesus Watson E.
