Technicolor Race Technology And Everyday Life:

Technicolor Alondra Nelson, Thuy Linh Nguyen Tu, Alicia Headlam Hines, 2001-03 The cultural impact of new information and communication technologies has been a constant topic of debate but questions of race and ethnicity remain a critical absence TechniColor fills this gap by exploring the relationship between race and technology From Indian H 1B Workers and Detroit techno music to karaoke and the Chicano internet a TechniColor s specific case studies document the ways in which people of color actually use technology The results rupture such racial stereotypes as Asian whiz kids and Black and Latino techno phobes while fundamentally challenging many widely held theoretical and political assumptions Incorporating a broader definition of technology and technological practices to include not only those technologies thought to create revolutions computer hardware and software but also cars cellular phones and other everyday technologies TechniColor reflects the larger history of technology use by people of color Contributors Vivek Bald Ben Chappell Beth Coleman McLean Greaves Logan Hill Alicia Headlam Hines Karen Hossfeld Amitava Kumar Casey Man Kong Lum Alondra Nelson Mimi Nguyen Guillermo Gomez Pea Tricia Rose Andrew Ross Thuy Linh Nguyen Tu and Ben Williams

Technology and Society, second edition Deborah G. Johnson, Jameson M. Wetmore, 2021-08-24 Writings by thinkers ranging from Rokeya Sakhawat Hossain to Bruno Latour that focus on the interconnections of technology society and values Technological change does not happen in a vacuum decisions about which technologies to develop fund market and use engage ideas about values as well as calculations of costs and benefits In order to influence the development of technology for the better we must first understand how technology and society are inextricably bound together These writings by thinkers ranging from Bruno Latour to Francis Fukuyama help us do just that examining how people shape technology and how technology shapes people This second edition updates the original significantly offering twenty one new essays along with fifteen from the first edition The book first presents visions of the future that range from technological utopias to cautionary tales and then introduces several major STS theories It examines human and social values and how they are embedded in technological choices and explores the interesting and subtle complexities of the technology society relationship Remedying a gap in earlier theorizing in the field many of the texts illustrate how race and gender are intertwined with technology Finally the book offers a set of readings that focus on the sociotechnical challenges we face today treating topics that include cybersecurity geoengineering and the myth of neutral technology

Hacking Diversity Christina Dunbar-Hester, 2020 We regularly read and hear exhortations for women to take up positions in STEM The call comes from both government and private corporate circles and it also emanates from enthusiasts for free and open source software FOSS i.e software that anyone is free to use copy study and change in any way Ironically rate of participation in FOSS related work is far lower than in other areas of computing A 2002 European Union study showed that fewer than 2 percent of software developers in the FOSS world were women How is it that an intellectual community of activists so open in principle to one and all a community that prides itself for its enlightened politics and its commitment to social change should have such a low rate of participation by women This book is an ethnographic investigation of efforts to improve the diversity in software and hackerspace communities with particular attention paid to gender diversity advocacy Calling for Change Sheila McIntyre, Elizabeth Sheehy, 2006-06-28 Unique in both scope and perspective Calling for Change investigates the status of women within the Canadian legal profession ten years after the first national report on the subject was published by the Canadian Bar Association Elizabeth Sheehy and Sheila McIntyre bring together essays that investigate a wide range of topics from the status of women in law schools the practicing bar and on the bench to women s grassroots engagement with law and with female lawyers from the frontlines Contributors not only reflect critically on the gains losses and barriers to change of the past decade but also provide blueprints for political action Academics community activists practitioners law students women litigants and law society benchers and staff explore how egalitarian change is occurring and or being impeded in their particular contexts Each of these unique voices offers lessons from their individual collective and institutional efforts to confront and counter the interrelated forms of systemic inequality that compromise women s access to education and employment equity within legal institutions and ultimately to equal justice in Canada Published in English Hidden in White Sight Calvin Lawrence, 2023-04-14 Artificial Intelligence was meant to be the great social equalizer that helps promote fairness by removing human bias from the equation but is this true Given that the policing and judicial systems can display human bias this book explores how the technology they use can also reflect these prejudices From healthcare services to social scoring in exams to applying for and getting loans AI outcomes often restrict those most in need of these services Through personal stories from an esteemed Black Data Scientist and AI expert this book attempts to demystify the algorithmic black box AI pervades all aspects of modern society and affects everyone within it yet its internal biases are rarely confronted This book advises readers on what they can do to fight against it including the introduction of a proposed AI Bill of Rights whilst also providing specific recommendations for AI developers and technologists <https://hiddeninwhitesight.com> Encyclopedia of Community DAVID LEVINSON, KAREN CHRISTENSEN, 2003-06-30 Click Additional Materials for downloadable materials and samples Incredibly this is the first encyclopedia to focus on community as concept and experience so stands alone in its field as the one title any library must buy to cover this topic Essential for all readerships CHOICEA timely comprehensive and very welcome overview of a rich and rapidly growing field of inquiry Robert D Putnam Professor at Harvard University and author of Bowling Alone With every passing minute it becomes more and more apparent that our world is one community The Encyclopedia of Community serves as recognition of this trend and as a needed resource The four volume set not only explains the emerging buzz words of community such as social capital or civic engagement but also tells many stories of community institutions that work such as public libraries Sarah Ann Long Past President 1999 2000 American Library Association As we yearn to connect with our fellow citizens during these uncertain
