Techniques For Ensuring Pr Coverage In The Regional Media An In:

Techniques for Ensuring PR Coverage in the Regional Media Mike Imeson, 1998 The regional media are vibrant and growing attracting bigger and better audiences and producing better programmes and better publications offering substantial PR opportunities at every level But opportunities are often missed partly because the PR industry often underplays the potential impact the regions can have and still considers that national media coverage is sufficient This is short sighted Even the simplest campaign will achieve more space and airtime in the regions if the requirements and attitudes of those in the regional media are considered at an early stage Some of the best national PR coups have started in a home town weekly or evening newspaper later picked up by local freelancers Once syndicated nationally they can multiply with surprising ease Specific knowledge and methods are required You shouldn't be using the same methods you apply on the national circuit they just won't work This in depth Briefing will give you the tools and techniques you need to enjoy the opportunities offered by the regional and local media It offers you practical guidance and advice on how to apply them with maximum effect for your next PR campaign A Guidebook for Riverside Regeneration Frank Bothmann, Rudolf

Kerndlmaier, Albert I. Koffeman, Klaus Mandel, Sarah Wallbank, 2007-06-24 Artery is an initiative on a European scale funded by the INTERREG IIIB NWE programme which puts riverside restoration and regeneration at the heart of regional strategies helping communities across Europe turn back to face the water This book discusses the implemented strategies of the Artery initiative including public private partnership public participation awareness programs and regional development strategies

Public Relations and Media in Cooperatives: An Indian Perspective Sanjay Kumar Verma, 2019-09-01 At a time when effective communications has become the biggest issue confronting the cooperative movement globally the book delves into the issues of Public Relations and Media in the context of cooperatives in India Being the largest cooperative movement in the world with significant achievements in various areas of socio economic activities the Indian cooperative movement faces a big challenge of image building which can enhance the profile of the cooperative movement and create awareness about the beneficial aspects of cooperative development amongst the general masses Against this backdrop the book is a timely endeavour to analyse the issues of public relations and media which have an important role in image building of the cooperative sector The book with a strategic orientation comes up with fresh perspectives so as to prepare a road map for strengthening the functioning of public relations and media in the working of cooperatives in India As communications is considered the weakest link in the functioning of the cooperative sector there is a strong realization that the cooperative movement in India cannot succeed without a vibrant public relations and media policy As the communication literature in the cooperative sector in India is scanty the book also fills a big void in enriching the subjects of public relations and media which are generally neglected The book deals with a wide gamut of vital issues like importance of public relations research in public relations media relations community media cooperative advocacy success stories strategic communications social media role of blogs and also some case studies related to public relations and media The book provides a refreshing referral benefit to students and teachers of public relations and media research scholars faculty members academicians practitioners and policy makers related to the cooperative sector in India and abroad Air Transport Provision in Remoter Regions Svein Bråthen, 2016-03-23 This book stems from a series of biennial conferences devoted to issues affecting air transport provision in remoter regions that have been organized by the Centre for Air Transport in Remoter Regions at Cranfield University The primary aim of the conferences has been to provide an opportunity for those responsible for operating managing regulating and financing air transport services and associated infrastructure in these areas to be informed of the latest best practice initiatives to contrast different policy approaches and to debate potential solutions to perennial problems Remoter regions has been a neglected area of air transport as much of the focus of public and media attention is on the larger airlines airports and aircraft While the number of large airports in the world is in the hundreds there are many thousands of smaller airports providing communities all over the globe with vital air links More often than not these services and the airports to which they are operated are loss making and require subsidies to sustain them There are therefore many more interested parties involved in both providing and deciding issues relating to the provision of air transport in these situations most especially central regional and local governments who are charged with financing these activities The book contains 17 chapters from experts in remote region air transport within the following 5 sections Key economic and socio economic issues Subvention mechanisms Route development initiatives Infrastructure provision Issues affecting the provision of air services in remoter regions Power and Protest at an American University Ellen Carnaghan, Kathryn E. Kuhn, 2020-10-27 This book examines the successful no confidence movement led by faculty at Saint Louis University in 2013 in an effort to unseat the university president considering the reasons for success when similar movements often fail Through a series of chapters written by faculty from many disciplines at the university it uses a particular episode of faculty protest to shed light on wider issues concerning the circumstances in which faculty are likely to be motivated to protest the institutional frameworks that make protest possible and the strategies that get results As such it will appeal to scholars of social movements with interests in protest and mobilization in the field of education III-Nitride Semiconductors Hongxing Jiang, 2024-11-01 This second part presents a comprehensive overview of fundamental optical properties of the III Nitride Semiconductor All optoelectronic applications based on III nitrides are due to their unique optical properties and characterizations of III nitrides Much information which is critical to the design and improvement of optoelectronic devices based on III nitrides has been obtained in the last several years This is the second of a two part Volume in the series Optoelectronic Properties of Semiconductors and Superlattices Aids: Effective Health Communication For The 90s Scott C. Ratzan, 2014-02-25 Despite educational efforts the majority of Americans are still under the misconception that they are not at risk from HIV AIDS infection In addition the federal government only spends 2% of the total designated federal AIDS funding toward prevention

Thus information in respect to AIDS and health communication in any comprehensive nature is almost nonexistent This book aims to rectify the situation by presenting detailed analysis and actions necessary to confront the AIDS pandemic on every level of the communication realm Contributors are experienced researchers educators government officials and physicians They examine the issue from a number of standpoints including communication adolescent medicine public administration psychology journalism audiology speech and language pathology neurological surgery preventive medicine and public health
