

A movie poster for the film 'Sisters in Arms'. The top half features a close-up of two Black women in military uniforms. The woman on the left is in profile, looking down, while the woman on the right looks forward with a determined expression. They are both wearing olive green berets and collared uniforms with green buttons. The background is a blue sky with several military aircraft flying. The bottom half of the poster is a large, aged, yellowish-brown envelope with a red and white striped flap. The title 'Sisters in Arms' is written in a large, red, cursive font across the envelope. A circular postmark with the word 'PARIS' is visible on the right side of the envelope, and some faint, illegible text is on the left.

Sisters in Arms Erica Ruppert, 2021-07-23 Michelle de la Fortuna's research brought her back to the lonely Massachusetts coast and to the house of the reclusive Sisters of Providence For more than sixty years the Sisters have stood watch here first against the terrible pandemic that devastated their town and then against a more insidious threat from the depths of the sea Drawn into the mystery by the last remaining member of the Sisterhood Michelle begins to unravel the connections between the legends the Sisters and her own family history Generational horror with a great Occult Seventies feel Erica Ruppert weaves the sea myth and isolation into a novella rich with creepy atmosphere and deft characterization Recommended Scott R. Jones author of Stonefish and Shout Kill Revel Repeat At its core this is a story about family lore ghosts and the old haunting absence caused by an untimely death The narrative from there is adorned with a woman out to solve the mystery of her own ancestry a town hollowed out by a pandemic in the early 1900s and monsters from the sea Ruppert manages to give readers a story that while similar to all the trappings of Innsmouth feels new and distinct Sisters in Arms is a reminder of how long death sits with the living how the past always seems to catch up when we suspect it the least and of how powerless we are against it S.
