Parker, Henrik Simojoki, 2023 This book brings together two topics which have both been of increasing interest in different countries The first refers to the quality of Religious Education as a school subject RE in general the second is about the education of teachers of RE and its possible contribution to better quality RE There have been many public and often controversial debates concerning both of these topics The chapters contained in this volume however are not meant to continue such debates even if it is inevitable that they will contribute to these debates as well but to make use of research especially research on teacher education in the field of RE in order to provide insights based not just on political or personal opinions but on rigorous academic scholarship      Theology and Religious Studies in Higher Education D.L. irreligious as indicated in the Book of Job by putting God in the dock whereas it is the pupil who should be cross examining his or her life What are the ways of exciting and engaging the young so that they begin to entertain the possibility of religious life as a genuine option for themselves Leading scholars in philosophy and theology from the UK Australia Canada and the USA come together to address these questions together with RE experts Marius Felderhof writes an Afterword summing up the challenges faced by such a re visioning of RE
