Star Myths Robert Milton Miller, 1983 Studies the film biography genre from The Great Ziegfeld to Mommie Dearest with individual chapters devoted to such specialists as bandleaders comedians singers dancers actors and songwriters Covers over 125 bio films made between 1930 and 1982 Why Docudrama? Alan Rosenthal, 1999 Defining and examining the rationale of docudrama the nine essayists in the first part discuss the history and development of docudrama on TV and in film they also consider the place of truth in docudrama the main critiques of the form and the audience's susceptibilities and expectations In investigating the actual filmmaking process the eight essays in the second part focus on how docudrama as a commodity is created in the United States and England Part essay part case study and part interview this section also explores how Hollywood and the commercial networks as well as producers and writers work and think The final part presents an in depth critique of a number of controversial docudramas that have helped form and shape public opinion including Battleship Potemkin Roots Reds JFK Mississippi Burning Schindler's List and In the Name of the Father The Wisdom of Storytelling in an Information Age Amy E. Spaulding, 2004 Contemporary storytelling provides a welcome refuge for those seeking the antidote to the increasingly impersonal experiences of the technology age Bare data and facts don't always have the ability to inspire or teach but storytelling if effective will always touch its audience Spaulding has compiled and provided written analysis for a series of talks covering subjects all relating to the importance of storytelling here and now in the Age of Information She campaigns for the Virtual Reality of the Mind and discusses the Story as Social Glue driving home the point that the word is mightier than the word processor Biopics of Women Karen Hollinger, 2020-04-22 This book is an accessible overview of biographical fiction films of women and is structured around four of the most popular subjects of female biopics queens and political figures entertainers writers and subjects of current affairs While the biopic is commonly accepted as a deeply conservative cinematic form that represents glorification of the past and of the self made individual a number of biopics of women challenge all of these characterizations They show the genre to be much more complicated and challenging to regressive ideas than has been proposed and open to different formats and thematic possibilities Providing an overview of key subgenres complemented by analyses of key texts that illustrate major aspects of each category Biopics of Women examines the development of biographical films in each area and the images of successful women they project in order to investigate the issues involved in women's representation in the genre as a whole This is a lively and readable text for students and scholars in Gender and Film Gender and Media and Women's Studies

Films in Review, 1984 Epic

Television Miniseries John De Vito, Frank Tropea, 2010-03-08 To paraphrase silent movie queen Norma Desmond in Billy Wilder's classic 1950 film Sunset Boulevard The epic miniseries are big It's television that got small This is especially true when one compares such iconic epic miniseries as Rich Man Poor Man 1976 Roots 1977 Holocaust 1978 Shogun 1980 The Winds of War 1983 War and Remembrance 1988-89 and Angels in America 2003 to today's ordinary television programming This work traces the historical trajectory of the epic miniseries and delves into the character archetypes and themes that recur in the genre giving close critical attention to more than 40 miniseries A filmography is included Postwall German Cinema Mattias Frey, 2013 Since the fall of the Berlin Wall there has been a proliferation of German historical films These productions have earned prestigious awards and succeeded at box offices both at home and abroad where they count among the most popular German films of all time Recently however the country's cinematic take on history has seen a significant new development the radical style content and politics of the New German Cinema With in depth analyses of the major trends and films this book represents a comprehensive assessment of the historical film in today's Germany Challenging previous paradigms it takes account of a postwall cinema that complexly engages with various historiographical forms and above all with film history itself The Great Gangster Pictures II Michael R. Pitts, James Robert Parish, 1987-05-01 This is a follow up to the enormously successful and critically praised Great Gangster Pictures Scarecrow 1976 The authors pick up where the previous volume left off and discuss some 400 genre features from the very best to the absolute worst incorporating titles released since 1976 and picking up many titles from earlier decades
