

The book cover features a dramatic, painterly illustration. At the top, a dark silhouette of a bird, possibly a swallow, is in flight against a warm, golden-brown sky. Below the bird, a diagonal band of light blue and green, resembling a comet's tail or a nebula, stretches across the frame. This band is bordered by two parallel lines of small, dark, spherical objects, possibly stars or debris, that appear to be falling or orbiting. The title 'Stardust Falling' is prominently displayed in the center in a large, white, serif font. Below the title, a subtitle in a smaller, white, sans-serif font reads 'The story of the plane that vanished'. At the bottom of the cover, a detailed illustration of a four-engine propeller aircraft, likely a B-29 Superfortress, is shown in profile, flying towards the right. The background of the bottom half of the cover is a dark, stormy sky with swirling clouds and a hint of a landscape below.
