Star Quality Joan Collins, 2003 When gutsy Irish redhead Millie McClancey defies her humble beginnings to pursue a life on the stage she becomes the first of four generations of unforgettable women to find success in the world of show business

A Novel Approach to Theatre Linda Sarver, Tom Markus, 1997 Contains over 600 entries describing novels that have theatrical settings or in which characters work in the theatre Film as a Medium of Seduction Marcus

Stiglegger, 2024-03-14 The seduction theory defines film in a broader sense as a medium of seduction based on the French concept of seduction It is a theoretical approach influenced by continental philosophy and classical film theory linked to a three stage analytical model The book introduces the theoretical foundations and using various classical and contemporary examples from film history presents a genuine method of film analysis Thomas Hardy's Novel Universe Pamela

Gossin, 2017-03-02 In this the first book length study of astronomy in Hardy's writing historian of science and literary scholar Pamela Gossin brings the analytical tools of both disciplines to bear as she offers unexpected and sophisticated readings of seven novels that enrich Darwinian and feminist perspectives on his work extend formalist evaluations of his achievement as a writer and provide fresh interpretations of enigmatic passages and scenes In an elegantly crafted introduction Gossin draws together the shared critical values and methods of literary studies and the history of science to articulate a hybrid model of scholarly interpretation and analysis that promotes cross disciplinary compassion and understanding within the current contention of the science culture wars She then situates Hardy's own deeply interdisciplinary knowledge of astronomy and cosmology within both literary and scientific traditions from the ancient world through the Victorian era Gossin offers insightful new assessments of A Pair of Blue Eyes Far from the Madding Crowd The Return of the Native Two on a Tower The Woodlanders Tess of the D'Urbervilles and Jude the Obscure arguing that Hardy's personal synthesis of ancient and modern astronomy with mythopoetic and scientific cosmologies enabled him to write as a literary cosmologist for the post Darwinian world The profound new myths that comprise Hardy's novel universe can be read as a sustained set of literary thought experiments by which he critiques the possibilities limitations and dangers of living out the storylines that such imaginative cosmologies project for his time and ours Childish Loves: A Novel Benjamin Markovits, 2011-08-29

Byron sets off for Greece after the failure of his involvement in the Italian revolution to fight for Greek independence His relationship with Countess Guiccioli has declined on his side at least into an affection which seems indistinguishable from the absence of true feeling He has wasted his passion for life for men for children for his sister for his own childhood There is nothing left He is sailing away to die On arrival in Greece one of the boys sent to serve him catches his eye It strikes him as indicative of his decline in reputation and increase in age that nothing in his person or personality can interest the child The boy's indifference soon enflames Byron into stronger desires Wooing the pretty Greek boy as Byron lies dying becomes a test not only of his gift for winning the world round to him as he always could but of his own ability to feel again and its corollary
