Following the Lamb Keith T. Marriner, 2016-01-11 Jesus parting words to his followers were for them to Go therefore and make disciples of all nations Matt 28 19 This being the case shouldn't we be concerned with gaining a full understanding of discipleship from the entire New Testament corpus Many scholars recognize that the theme of discipleship is found throughout the New Testament even in Revelation with all of its symbolism and bizarre imagery But how does it do this The focus of this study through the use of content analysis methodology is to demonstrate that the theme of discipleship is not only found in the Apocalypse but is also exceedingly relevant for Christians today In many parts of the world Jesus disciples are facing opposition and persecution for their testimony to Jesus Christ It would do Christians well to read the book of Revelation once again As they read it this time through the eyes of the oppressed the content of the book will prove extremely valuable to aid disciples of Jesus in their efforts to follow the Lamb wherever he goes Rev 14 4 no matter what the cost

Teaching and Understanding Pneumatology & Spiritual Gifts Elijah E. Dunbar, 2009-05-22 The geographical extent of the orient and occident is a validation of the cultural and ideological differences that have existed with constancies between the two hemispheres throughout the eons of time Ideological pluralism has been the common practice of the inhabitants of both spheres but with unique manifestations Christianity along with other religions are warmly embraced and pragmatically characterized by the orientals and occidentals with reserved peculiarities Oriental Christians viewed pneumatology as being a significant part of their theological and liturgical lives while Occidental Christians see Christology as the primal substance in Christianity Although both groups have a history of singling out this distinction over the years theologians and theology have helped both sides understand the importance of both pneumatology and Christology in Christianity It is concertedly understood that neither of the two can be studied or taught without the other Their inseparable existence makes Christianity a complete whole The authors exploration and literary expedition through myriad of sources allow him to compile data relevant to understanding the importance of the Holy Ghost and Spiritual gifts within the Christian community Whether a secular or non secular intellectual you will find the information in this book to be rewarding resourceful and informative You will come across comments from some of humanity's and Christendom's finest and brightest academics in an eclectic form Join the author now on his literary expedition Welcome

Teaching that Transforms Richard R. Melick, Jr., Shera Melick, 2010-05-01 A proposal on how to improve the way the Bible is taught to adult learners that focuses on life transformation and putting faith into action

Christian Education and the Emerging Church Rev. Dr. Wendi Sargeant, 2015-07-24 All signs point to Christian education having lost its theological location and prominence in the life of the Western Protestant church The Emerging Church movement as an intentionally postmodern approach to ministry in the contemporary context may however offer insights to reinterpret Christian education This significant movement in today s church gives Christian education a new interpretive framework that is theologically located at an intersection of doxology and doctrine In her examination of postmodern faith formation Wendi Sargeant explores the importance of the Christian worshipping community as the most appropriate setting for Christian education Practitioners and students will benefit from the ready to use teaching and learning matrix and all those with interest in the formation of faith in themselves and others will draw much from the way Sargeant situates worship as the basis for enhancing Christian formation and ethos
