Teaching Racism Or Tackling It Multicultural Stories From White Beginning Teachers:

Teaching Racism, Or Tackling It? Russell Jones, 1999-01-01 The tactics by which Black and Asian children are made white by proxy so that teachers can avoid recognising their ethnic status are catalogued in a typology of disappearance These beginning teachers stories illustrate patterns of helplessness confusion and denial even in the face of overt racism The author highlights the pitfalls in the teacher education process and indicates how universities and schools can face up to diversity in ways that will be positive for both the teachers and their pupils BOOK JACKET Education Studies: Issues & Critical Perspectives Kassem, Derek, Mufti , Emmanuel, Robinson, John, 2006-08-01 Education Studies is an essential text for Education Studies students It provides a critical account of key issues in education today Themed sections with introductions link the issues discussed in each chapter Strategies and Resources for Teaching and Learning in Inclusive Classrooms Paul Gardner, 2014-03-18 Teachers students and bilingual teaching assistants looking for resources and activities to help raise achievement among minority ethnic pupils and develop a multicultural perspective will find this book indispensable Included in this practical and accessible volume are a wide variety of activities examples of materials and photocopiable sheets for direct use in the classroom which can be easily adapted for different learning situations tried and tested examples of good practice practical strategies to help bilingual pupils develop their language skills guidance on partnership teaching and working with bilingual classroom assistants and advice on raising the achievement of bilingual pupils from disadvantaged groups Key Issues for Teaching Assistants Gill Richards, Felicity Armstrong, 2007-10-30 Teaching Assistants are increasingly relied upon to provide for children who experience difficulties in learning Key Issues for Teaching Assistants is an essential companion for any Teaching Assistant who wants to understand more about inclusion and diversity in today s classrooms While focussing particularly on the diverse roles of teaching assistants in supporting inclusive education this book will be invaluable for all those involved in the development of inclusive learning and teaching This highly accessible resource explores the values and the possible contradictions in policies and beliefs enabling Teaching Assistants to develop a deeper understanding of the fundamental principles of inclusive education Contributions from leading experts in the field consider common classroom issues such as inclusion and special needs dealing with hard to reach parents tackling bullying and supporting those bullied boys girls and the different ways they achieve being the class TA not PA Each chapter contains an overview of topical debates current research and initiatives emphasising inclusive approaches and the importance of understanding the perspectives of children regardless of their difference Useful questions for reflection and a helpful list of suggested further reading material are also provided Teaching Assistants whether in practice or as part of their study will find this book an indispensable resource Being a Teacher in Post-Apartheid South Africa Yusuf Sayed, Marcina Singh, 2025-05-01 In a compelling exploration of the challenges faced by newly qualified teachers NQTs in South Africa s evolving educational landscape this book provides an empirically grounded account of their experiences Drawing on extensive research it offers a poignant narrative that seeks to illuminate the nuanced journey these educators embark upon as they transition from teacher education spaces to the complex reality of classrooms in post Apartheid South Africa The book acts as a crucial platform for the voices of NQTs shedding light on the myriad enablers and disablers they encounter during this transformative period Timely and relevant it tackles pressing questions about the readiness of teacher education to prepare students for the demands of South African schools The book charts the transition from teacher education to active teacher for NQTs The lessons distilled from this research present a clarion call for a re assessment of teacher education policies and practices This book arrives at a pivotal moment as South Africa reviews its teacher education policies With the quality of initial teacher education programmes under scrutiny the book s critiques findings and recommendations serve as indispensable tools for policymakers arguing for the need to reconceptualise South African teacher education policies As South Africa strives to avoid a cycle of developing new teachers only to lose them due to inadequate support this book seeks to support educators policymakers and all those invested in the future of South African education toward creating a more socially just education system recognising the highly unequal society in which teachers work
