Teaching About Peacekeeping And Peacemaking:

Person to Person Peacebuilding, Intercultural Communication and English Language Teaching Amy Jo

Minett, Sarah E. Dietrich, Didem Ekici, 2022-03-16 This book maps the discursive terrain and potential of person to person peacebuilding as it intersects with and is embedded in intercultural communication It foregrounds the voices and discourses of participants who came together in the virtual intercultural borderlands of online exchange through a service learning project with a non profit organization which focused on peace through education in Afghanistan primarily through English language tutoring By analyzing the voices and perspectives of US based tutors who are pre service teachers of English as an Additional Language in equal measure with the voices and perspectives of adult English learners in Afghanistan the authors examine how intercultural interactants begin to work as peacebuilders The participants describe the profound transformations they undergo throughout their intercultural tutoring journeys transformations which evidence three dimensions of person to person peacebuilding the personal relational and structural Inspired by these voices the book further explores ways teachers and teacher educators of language and intercultural communication can more deliberately leverage the affordance of peacebuilding whether face to face or in the virtual intercultural borderlands of online exchange

Peacebuilding in Language Education Rebecca L. Oxford, María Matilde Olivero, Melinda Harrison, Tammy

Gregersen, 2020-11-09 This innovative much needed book shares powerful wisdom and practical strategies to help language teachers teacher educators and peace educators communicate peace contribute to peace and weave peacebuilding into classrooms and daily life The clear six part Language of Peace Approach underlies more than 50 creative activities that can promote peacebuilding competence in secondary and post secondary students current and prospective educators and community members outside of academia Chapters span the spectrum from cross cultural peace education to the positive psychology of peace from nonverbal peace language to transformative language teaching for peace and from the needs of language learners to the needs of language educators The book makes a unique and valuable contribution to the discussion of how we can live together peacefully in a changing world

Transforming Education for Peace Jing Lin, Edward J.

Brantmeier, Christa Bruhn, 2008-06-01 Currently peace education remains marginalized in our education system however a united front can be formed and powerful paradigms can empower educators to play a critical role in peace building through scholarship practice and activism Indeed educators around the world are developing effective strategies to transform education as a powerful force for global peace The diverse array of contributors in the book demonstrate that educators as peace makers can be and have been instrumental in transforming social forces the self and others for the construction of global peace The book aims to broaden the educational discourse in order to make room for new visions to educate future generations for peace Local and global efforts to build a long lasting peace are presented through the lens of education The timeliness of peace education surely renders this book relevant to educators and the general public alike as individuals communities and organizations struggle to find pathways to peace in a global world In other words this book will interest scholars and the general public concerned about the building of global peace The book can be source book for educators at elementary secondary and postsecondary institutions to explore multiple ways to conduct effective peace education at all levels of education The book may also be used as a textbook by instructors of multicultural education of comparative international education and of undergraduate and graduate peace education courses

Handbook of Research in the Social Foundations of Education Steven Tozer, Bernardo P. Gallegos, Annette Henry, Mary Bushnell Greiner, Paula Groves Price, 2011-07-05 This groundbreaking volume helps readers understand the history evolution and significance of this wide ranging often misunderstood and increasingly important field of study

The Art of Global Peacebuilding and Excellence in Education Angie Kotler, Jo Westbrook, 2025-03-31 This seminal volume juxtaposes and interrogates established definitions of peacebuilding and excellence in diverse education settings including in conflict and assesses how they might work together in international educational contexts Showcasing in depth case studies from Rwanda Ethiopia Liberia and the UK chapters tackle issues of global significance such as identity conflict decolonisation and climate justice fusing empirical research outcomes with practical examples Each chapter argues for the central role of peacebuilding in defining excellence in education demonstrating context specific cognitive affective and relational strands of learning and teaching Ultimately challenging contemporary thinking and educational theory in an accessible practitioner focused way this book demonstrates how imaginative and reflective practice in diverse contexts can lead to the educational transformation required for the world's current and future challenges This book will inspire educators researchers and policymakers involved with education policy and politics citizenship education and teacher education and development to work towards change both within classrooms and at the systems level so that education can contribute to peacebuilding through new definitions of excellence
