Teaching Translation and Interpreting Łukasz Bogucki, Miłkołaj Deckert, 2012-12-21 Translation is a phenomenon that affects us all on a daily basis the more so now that dissemination of information is greatly enhanced by modern technology However there are no strict regulations on who can become a translator and what qualifications are required The contributors to this volume strive to find out whether translators are taught self taught or trained what the teaching or training programmes are like and how they can be improved This is a companion volume to Teaching Translation and Interpreting Challenges and Practices edited by Łukasz Bogucki Cambridge Scholars Publishing 2010 It contains papers delivered at two international conferences devoted to teaching translation and interpreting organised in Poland as well as invited contributions The authors are translation and interpreting scholars and teachers from leading Polish and Ukrainian universities

Teaching Translation and Interpreting 3 Cay Dollerup, Vibeke Appel, 1996 Selected papers from the Third Language International Conference on Translator and Interpreter Training Capping the series of conferences on this theme in Denmark the present volume brings together a choice selection of the papers read by scholars and teachers from five continents and within all specialities in Translation Studies In combination with the two previous volumes of the same title the book offers an up to date comprehensive representative overview focusing on main issues in teaching in the relatively new field of translation There are informed and incisive discussions of subtitling interpreting and translation spanning from its historical beginnings to presentations of machine translation and predictions of the future of translation work Contributions ranging from discussions on the interplay between theory and teaching teaching literary translation introducing students to central issues in translation practice and historical and social issues in teaching translation

Teaching Translation and Interpreting 4 Eva Hung, 2002-01-01 This volume contains selected papers from the 4th Language International Conference on Teaching Translation and Interpreting Building Bridges which was held in Shanghai in December 1998 The collection is an excellent source of ideas and information for teachers and students alike With contributions from five continents the topics discussed cover a wide range including the relevance of translation theories cultural and technical knowledge acquisition literary translation translation and interpreting for the media Internet related training methods and tools for student assessment While complementing the volumes of the previous three conferences in exploring new methods and frontiers this collection is particularly strong on case studies outside of the European and Anglo American spheres

Teaching and Testing Interpreting and Translating Valerie Pellatt, Kate Griffiths, Shao-Chuan Wu, 2010 The book presents a range of theoretical and practical approaches to the teaching of the twin professions of interpreting and translating covering a variety of language pairs All aspects of the training process are addressed from detailed word level processing to student concerns with their careers and from the setting of examinations to the standardisation of marking The articles show very clearly the strengths and needs the potential and vision of interpreter and translator training as it exists in countries around the world The experience of the authors who are all actively engaged in training interpreters and translators demonstrates the innovative practical and reflective approaches which are proving invaluable in the formation of the next generation of professional translators and interpreters While many of them are being trained in universities they are being prepared for a life in the real world of business and politics through the use of authentic texts and tools and up to date methodology Teaching Translation vs. Training Translators Pavel Drábek,Chris Durban,Michal Homola,Anastasios Ioannidis,Filip Krajník,Anna Mikyšková,Hana Pavlisová,Viktoriya Petrova,Ján Tupý,Patrick Williamson,2022 The present volume is a collection of selected contributions presented at the Translation and Interpreting Forum Olomouc TIFO 2019 which was held under the title Teaching Translation vs Training Translators The organizers goal was to provide a platform for all parties with an interest in translating and interpreting both academics and professionals to meet and to discuss and critically examine relevant issues and often opposed viewpoints The participants included representatives of universities EU institutions publishing industry transnational corporations and language service providers
