Convoy Will Scatter Bernard Edwards,2013-06-12 A naval historian reveals the full story of the HMS Jervis Bay and the merchant ships that valiantly saved lives during the WWII Battle of the Atlantic On November 5th 1940 the thirty eight merchant ships of Convoy HX84 were making their way across the North Atlantic escorted by the armed cruiser HMS Jervis Bay In mid ocean they were attacked by the German pocket battleship Admiral Scheer Though the Jervis Bay charged at the enemy she was hopelessly outgunned Within twenty two minutes the ship was destroyed Meanwhile the merchantmen scattered under the cover of a smokescreen But the radar equipped Admiral Scheer was still capable of picking them off one at a time Captain Hugh Pettigrew commanding the highly armed Canadian Pacific cargo liner SS Beaverford began a desperate game of hide and seek with the Scheer which continued until the Beaverford was sunk with no survivors Thanks to this sacrifice thirty three merchantmen were able to escape Later the neutral flag Swedish freighter

Stureholm commanded by Captain Olander picked up survivors from the Jervis Bay While Jervis Bay's Captain Edward Fegen was rightly awarded the Victoria Cross for his bravery and sacrifice the history books only mention the Beaverford and the Stureholm in passing This thrilling book puts the record straight Churchill's Greatest Fear Richard Doherty,2015-11-30

The Battle of the Atlantic Churchill's term was arguably the pivotal campaign of the Second World War it was certainly the longest starting with the sinking of RMS Athenia on 3 September 1939 and ending with the torpedoing of SS Avon Dale on 7 May 1945 This superbly researched work covers all the major aspects of The Battle balancing the initial advantages of Admiral Doenitz's U Boat force the introduction of the convoy system the role of the opposing surface fleets and air forces relative strengths and the all important technical developments Intelligence particularly the Bletchley Park intercepts played an increasingly important part in the final outcome The author concludes that May 1943 was the moment when the Allies seized the initiative and despite desperate German efforts never lost their advantage Using official records personal accounts and a wealth of historical research this work gives the reader a splendidly concise yet broad account of the course of the campaign the men who fought it on both sides and the critical moments and analysis of the outcome The Fourth Service John Slader,2010-06-04 Here at last is the true story of the merchant fleet during World War II the non fighting service in which 32 000 men died yet whose essential role has never been fully appreciated The author himself a member of the service from 1941-47 relates the stories of merchantmen and their crews with unique insight From the early days of the war to the day of victory on the Rhine through combined operations in the Mediterranean and at Normandy the complete operation of the fleet is examined with vivid accounts of the horrific losses undergone the heroism of the crews and the sacrifices endured to ensure that Britain received its essential supplies of food oil and raw materials Highly illustrated this book will be absorbing for the war historian maritime enthusiast and general reader alike Watson's Really Big Wwii Almanac Patrick Watson,2007-12-11 Books Ireland ,1984 Uncommon Valour Granville Allen Mawer,2019-03-30 A military historian presents a provocative study of the Victoria Cross the heroes it honors and the ethics of the British honors system What is the nature of courage How and when should it be recognized How has our appreciation of it changed over time These are among the questions Granville Allen Mawer seeks to answer in this absorbing history of the Victoria Cross the highest honor awarded to members of the British Armed Forces for valor in the presence of the enemy Uncommon Valor is both an analytical account of the institution of the Victoria Cross and a fascinating study of the ethics of rewarding bravery It explores the origin of the award the rationale behind individual awards and the ways in which the institution has evolved over its long history Historian Granville Allen Mawer compares individual actions that led to a Victoria Cross analyzing the circumstances in which they took place the character of the individual concerned and the shifting criteria for giving awards This unconventional treatment of the Victoria Cross may be controversial but it should stimulate a deeper understanding of the history of the medal and of the heroism of those to whom it has been awarded Slanguage Bernard Share,2005 Are you a holy terror Are you a go boy Could you live on the skin of a rasher Or are you so hungry that you eat a farmer s arse through a hedge When you re on the razz do you get so buckled crippled and scuttered that you can t get your back outa the scratcher in the morning Never mind the answers if you understand the questions you are in Slanguage country If you don t you need to be This is the dictionary that glosses the words that real Irish people use in the streets each day every day Slang is elusive Some words and phrases are always there Others slip in and out of usage according to the whims of fashion This expanded edition of the standard dictionary of Irish slang includes many entries not in the 1997 edition It has dropped a few that have fallen out of favour and has revised others In all this edition is 25 per cent longer than its predecessor It will confirm Bernard Share s invaluable book in its position as the major work of its kind combining scholarship and a keen sense of fun Slanguage does justice to it by taking it seriously but not too seriously Ships Monthly ,1979 Liffey Ships and Shipbuilding Pat Sweeney,2010 The all but forgotten history of Dublin s shipbuilding yards Dictionary of Irish Literature ,1996 Irish Publishing Record ,1979 A Biographical Dictionary of Irish Writers Anne M.
