voice to the estimated 1.6 million young people in the United States and Canada who run away or are kicked out of their homes each year. Includes striking photographs, stories of firsthand experiences, mentoring and working with homeless and troubled youth, and practical suggestions on how to get involved. Discusses the root causes of homelessness among young people and policy recommendations to address them. Provides action steps readers can take to fight youth homelessness and assist individual homeless young people. Written by Kevin Ryan, president of Covenant House and Pulitzer Prize nominee, and former New York Times writer Tina Kelley. Inviting us to get to know homeless teens as more than an accumulation of statistics and societal issues, this book gives a human face to a huge but largely invisible problem and offers practical insights into how to prevent homelessness and help homeless youth move to a hopeful future. For instance, one kid in the book goes on to become a college football player and counselor to at-risk adolescents, and another becomes a state kickboxing champion. All the stories inspire us with victories of the human spirit, large and small. A portion of the proceeds from the sale of each book will help support kids who benefit from Covenant House's shelter and outreach services. New York, 1991
