Six Indonesian Short Stories:

Six Indonesian Short Stories Rufus S. Hendon, 1968 Six Indonesian Short Stories. [Translated and Introduced By] Rufus S. Hendon Rufus Staples HENDON, 1968 Hamka's Great Story James R. Rush, 2016-06-07 Hamka's Great Story presents Indonesia through the eyes of an impassioned popular thinker who believed that Indonesians and Muslims everywhere should embrace the thrilling promises of modern life and navigate its dangers with Islam as their compass. Hamka Haji Abdul Malik Karim Amrullah was born when Indonesia was still a Dutch colony and came of age as the nation itself was emerging through tumultuous periods of Japanese occupation, revolution, and early independence. He became a prominent author and controversial public figure. In his lifetime of prodigious writing, Hamka advanced Islam as a liberating, enlightened, and hopeful body of beliefs around which the new nation could form and prosper. He embraced science, human agency, social justice, and democracy, arguing that these modern concepts comported with Islam's true teachings. Hamka unfolded this big idea, his Great Story, decade by decade in a vast outpouring of writing that included novels and poems and chatty newspaper columns, biographies, memoirs, and histories, and lengthy studies of theology, including a thirty-volume commentary on the Holy Qur'an. In introducing this influential figure and his ideas to a wider audience, this sweeping biography also illustrates a profound global process: how public debates about religion are shaping national societies in the postcolonial world.

The Women's Movement in Postcolonial Indonesia Elizabeth Martyn, 2004-11-10 This book examines women's activism in the early years of independent Indonesia when new attitudes to gender, nationalism, citizenship, and democratization were forming. It questions the meaning of democratization for women and their relationship to national sovereignty within the new Indonesian state and discusses women's organizations and their activities, women's social and economic roles, and the different cultural, regional, and ethnic attitudes towards women, while showing the failure of political change to fully address women's gender interests and needs. The author argues that both the role of nationalism in defining gender identity and the role of gender in defining national identity need equal recognition.

Sunrise with Seamonsters Paul Theroux, 1986-05-08 This collection of wide-ranging essays from the New York Times bestselling travel writer is a steamer trunk full of delights. Chicago Sun Times: This collection of decidedly opinionated articles, essays, and ruminations by the author of My Other Life and Kowloon Tong transports the reader not only to exotic, unexpected places in the world but also into the interior life of the writer himself. Whether it is his time serving in the Peace Corps, his memorable interview with tennis star John McEnroe bearing witness to the uprising in Uganda, or the debt he owes to his mentor V. S. Naipaul, Theroux approaches each subject with characteristic intelligence, insight, and an eye for life's great ironies. Over the course of two decades, Paul Theroux gathers people, places, and ideas in precise, evocative writing that serves as both the camera and the eye, and both the details and the illusions are developed with brilliance. Time: What makes Mr. Theroux most persuasive as a writer is simply his willingness to put himself on the line. Gusty, personal, and astonishing. The New York Times: These pieces prove anew Theroux's unflagging infectious enthusiasm for exploring Kirkus Reviews Anthology of Short Stories from Indonesia, Malaysia, Singapore, 2015 The Indonesia Malaysia Singapore anthology a collection of twelve short stories by writers from Malaysia Indonesia and Singapore indicates that literature connects nations transcending geopolitical boundaries For this anthology writers and compositions that typically represented each nation were selected Malaysia is represented by Azmah Nordin S M Zakir Sri Diah and Zakaria Ali Indonesia is represented by Djenar Maesa Ayu Oka Rusmini Seno Gumira Ajidarma and Sulfixa Ariska and Singapore is represented by Rama Kannabiran Suchen Christine Lim Suratman Markasan and Wong Meng Voon Their writings are unique featuring not only local aspirations but also imparting universal values Literature aligns quintessential truths chronicles the inner voice and emphasises aspirations In the context of regional ties literature has great capacity to bind relationships through a mutual understanding of culture and shared values
