Bibliography Refugee Materials Center (U.S.),1986 Speak English!, Functional American English for the Modern World, Text One Mary Ann Corley,1986 TESOL Newsletter Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages,1987 TESL Talk ,1984 Speak English! M. A. Corley,B. A. Smallwood,1996 College Student Journal ,1980 World Englishes □ Problems, Properties and Prospects Thomas Hoffmann,Lucia Siebers,2009-09-23

World Englishes is a vibrant research field that has attracted scholars from many different linguistic subdisciplines Emphasizing the common ground of all research on World Englishes the 22 articles in this collected volume selected from more than a hundred papers presented at the 2007 conference of the International Association for World Englishes in Regensburg cover a broad range of topics which together reflect the state of the art of research in this field The volume focuses on regions as diverse as Africa the Caribbean the Antipodes and Asia but also promotes a globally comparative perspective by analyzing selected characteristics of the English language across a wide range of varieties Methodologically a number of different approaches are applied including corpus linguistic studies socio phonetics as well as historical discourse analysis Due to its wide scope the book is of interest not only to World Englishes scholars but also to sociolinguists as well as applied contact or corpus linguists

Speech Representation in the History of English Peter J. Grund,Terry Walker,2020-12 This volume explores how speakers and writers mark structure and discuss a previous speech event or fictional speech in historical periods Focusing on the Early Modern English and the Late Modern English periods the book covers multiple genres including witness depositions literary texts letters histories and spoken language The chapters draw on historical sociolinguistics historical pragmatics and corpus linguistics to show a wide array of approaches to the study of speech representation in the history of English

Phraseology and Culture in English Paul Skandera,2008-08-22 The proposition that there is a correlation between language and culture or culture specific ways of thinking can be traced back to the views of Herder and von Humboldt in the late 18th and early 19th centuries It is generally accepted today that a language especially its lexicon influences its speakers cultural patterns of thought and perception in various ways for example through a culture specific segmentation of the extralinguistic reality the frequency of occurrence of particular lexical items or the existence of keywords or key word combinations revealing core cultural values The aim of this volume is to explore the cultural dimension of a wide range of preconstructed or semi preconstructed word combinations in English The 17 papers of the volume are divided into four sections focusing on particular lexemes e g enjoy and its collocates types of word combinations e g proverbs and similes use related varieties such as the language of tourism or answering machine messages and user related varieties such as Aboriginal English or African English The sections are preceded by a prologue tracing the development of the study of formulaic language and followed by an epilogue which draws together the threads laid out in the various papers The relation between language and culture in general has been explored in a number of important works over the past ten years However the study of the relation between English phraseology and culture in particular has been largely neglected This volume is the first book length publication devoted entirely to this topic
