Educating Children with Profound and Multiple Learning Difficulties Jean Ware, 2018-09-03 First published in 1994 The authors of this book aim to make recent developments in psychological research accessible to teachers of pupils with profound and multiple learning difficulties. The authors present their own and related research in the areas of assessment curriculum and teaching techniques taking care to point out the range relevance and limitations of findings in the context of pupils with PMLDs As this is an area of acute training need the book will meet a real need for a broad current perspective on good practice. The needs of pupils at primary and secondary levels are considered and case studies are used to exemplify some of the challenges and approaches discussed The Education of People with Profound and Multiple Handicaps Judy Sebba,1988 Designed as a basis for in service courses for staff working with people who have profound and multiple handicaps Topics covered include assessment curriculum teaching methods microelectronics problem behaviour and The Routledge Companion to Severe, Profound and Multiple Learning Difficulties Penny Lacey, Rob physiotherapy Ashdown, Phyllis Jones, Hazel Lawson, Michele Pipe, 2015-04-10 The Routledge Companion to Severe Profound and Multiple Learning Difficulties is a timely and rich resource with contributions from writing teams of acknowledged experts providing a balance of both academic and practitioner perspectives The book covers a myriad of topics and themes and has the core purpose of informing and supporting everyone who is interested in improving the quality of education and support for children and young adults with severe profound and multiple learning difficulties and their families Each chapter contains careful presentations and analyses of the findings from influential research and its practical applications and the book is a treasure chest of experiences suggestions and ideas from practitioners that will be invaluable for many years to come The chapters include many vignettes gathered from practitioners in the field and are written specifically to be rigorous yet accessible The contributors cover topics related to the rights and needs of children and young adults from 0 25 years crucial features of high quality education characteristics of integrated provision and effective and sensitive working with families to ensure the best possible outcomes for their children Crucially the voice of the learners themselves shines through Historical provision that has had an impact on developing services and modern legislation aimed at improving provision and services are also discussed The contributed chapters are organised into six themed parts Provision for learners with SLD PMLD Involving stakeholders Priorities for meeting the personal and social needs of learners Developing the curriculum Strategies for supporting teaching and learning Towards a new understanding of education for learners with SLD PMLD This text is an essential read for students on courses and staff working in and with the whole range of educational settings catering for children and young adults with severe profound and multiple learning difficulties not just for teachers but also for support staff speech and language therapists physiotherapists psychologists nurses social workers and other specialists "Special Care" Provision Peter Evans, Jean Ware, 1987 Fulton Special Education Digest Ann Worthington, Philippa
