Spectacular Allegories Postmodern American Writing And The Politics Of Seeing:

Spectacular Allegories Josh Cohen,1998 In a wide ranging study Josh Cohen argues that the American fixation with image literally celebrating the surface the visual the spectacular spaces of the cinema and the city has produced a crisis of literary perception with crucial cultural and political consequences

Nelson Algren Robert Ward,2007 This collection of eleven essays on Algren s major work offers a diverse and lively range of theoretical and historical readings These include discussions of Algren s place in Chicago s left wing literary tradition the aesthetic of American and European naturalism and his reaction to and reception in the Cold War milieu of the 1940s and 1950s Consideration is also given to the ways in which paperback cover designs shaped the reception of Algren s novels as pulp fiction Algren s works are further illuminated by the theories of Walter Benjamin and those associated with confinement autobiography post colonialism and the cultural politics of American carnival The volume is supplemented by a piece that traces the birth and growth of the Algren archive at Ohio State University Robert Ward lectures in American Literature at St Martin s College Lancaster

The Cambridge Companion to Allegory Rita Copeland,Peter T. Struck,2010-03-25 Allegory is a vast subject and its knotty history is daunting to students and even advanced scholars venturing outside their own historical specializations This Companion will present lucidly systematically and expertly the various threads that comprise the allegorical tradition over its entire chronological range Beginning with Greek antiquity the volume shows how the earliest systems of allegory developed in poetry dealing with philosophy mystical religion and hermeneutics Once the earliest histories and themes of the allegorical tradition have been presented the volume turns to literary intellectual and cultural manifestations of allegory through the Middle Ages and Renaissance The essays in the last section address literary and theoretical approaches to allegory in the modern era from reactions to allegory in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries to reevaluations of its power in the thought of the twentieth century and beyond

The to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater Fran Mason,2009-07-23 The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater examines the different areas of postmodernist literature and theater and the variety of forms that have been produced It contains a list of acronyms a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and several hundred cross referenced dictionary entries on individual writers important aesthetic practices significant texts and important movements and ideas that have created a variety of literary approaches within the form By placing these concerns within the historical philosophical and cultural contexts of postmodernism this reference explores the frameworks within which postmodernist literature of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries operates Book Jacket

Historical Dictionary of Postmodernist Literature and Theater Fran Mason,2016-12-12 The main aim of the book has been to include writers movements forms of writing and textual strategies critical ideas and texts that are significant in relation to postmodernist literature In addition important scholars journals and cultural processes have been included where these are felt to be relevant to an understanding of postmodernist writing This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Postmodernist

Literature and Theater contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 400 cross referenced entries on postmodernist writers the important postmodernist aesthetic practices significant texts produced throughout the history of postmodernist writing and important movements and ideas that have created a variety of literary approaches within the form This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the postmodernist literature and theater The Architecture of the Visible Graham MacPhee,2002-07-01 Visual technology saturates everyday life Theories of the visual now key to debates across cultural studies social theory art history literary studies and philosophy have interpreted this new condition as the beginning of a dystopian future of cultural decline social disempowerment and political passivity Intellectuals from Baudelaire to Debord Benjamin Virilio Jameson Baudrillard and Derrida have explored how technology not only reinvents the visual but also changes the nature of culture itself The heartland of all such cultural analysis has been the city from Baudelaire s flaneur to Benjamin s arcades The Architecture of the Visible presents a wide ranging critical reassessment of contemporary approaches to visual culture through an analysis of pivotal technological innovation from the telescope through photography to film Drawing on the examples of Paris and New York two key world cities for over two centuries Graham MacPhee analyzes how visual technology is revolutionizing the landscape of modern thought politics and culture Walter Benjamin and Romanticism Andrew Benjamin,Beatrice Hanssen,2002-11-01 Walter Benjamin and Romanticism explores the relationship between Walter Benjamin s literary and philosophical work and the tradition of German Romanticism as well as Hlderlin and Goethe Through a detailed and scholarly analysis of the major texts the book explores the endurance of Benjamin s relationship to Romanticism the residual presence of Romantic Goethean and Hlderlinian motifs in Benjamin s subsequent writings and how Benjamin s understanding of the relationship between criticism and Romanticism can still play a vital role in contemporary philosophical and literary practice Contributors Andrew Benjamin Josh Cohen David Ferris Beatrice Hanssen Philippe Lacoue Labarthe Charlie Louth Bettine Menke Winfried Menninghaus Anthony Phelan Sigrid Weigel The Cambridge Companion to the Body in Literature David Hillman,Ulrika Maude,2015-05-26 This Companion offers the first systematic analysis of the body in literature from the Middle Ages to the present day Memory and the Built Environment 20th-Century American Literature Alice Levick,2021-05-20 From the paving of the Los Angeles River in 1938 and the creation of the G I Bill in 1944 to the construction of the Interstate Highway System during the late 1950s and the brownstoning movement of the 1970s throughout the mid 20th century the United States saw a wave of changes that had an enduring impact on the development of urban spaces Focusing on the relationship between processes of demolition and restoration as they have shaped the modern built environment and the processes by which memory is constructed hidden or remade in the literary text this book explores the ways in which history becomes entangled with the urban space in which it plays out Alice Levick takes stock of this history both in the form of its externalised concretised manifestation and its more symbolic representation as depicted in the mid 20th century work of a selection of American writers Calling upon access to archival material and interviews with New York academics authors local historians and urban planners this book locates Freud's Uncanny in the cracks between the absent and present invisible and visible memory and history as they are presented in city narratives demonstrating both the passage of time and the imposition of 20th century modernism With reference to the works of D J Waldie Joan Didion Hisaye Yamamoto Raymond Chandler Marshall Berman Gil Cuadros Paule Marshall L J Davis and Paula Fox Memory and the Built Environment in 20th Century American Literature unpacks how time becomes visible in Los Angeles Sacramento Lakewood and New York in the decades just before and after the Second World War questioning how these spaces provide access to the past in both narrative and spatial forms and how at times this access is blocked
