Specular Moment:

The Specular Moment David E. Wellbery, 1996 No study of Goethe's early lyric poetry has been published in English in the last fifty years But the reading of this poetry the author presents is not intended merely to introduce an English readership to a major body of work rather the book delineates for the first time in any language an account of the symbolic network or organizing myth that underlies Goethe's individual poems This marks a decisive break with the previous research on Goethe which has tended to view his poetry as the expression of occasional experiences The author shows on the contrary that Goethe's lyric work circles around a core set of problems and figures that it evinces a systematic coherence unperceived until now Goethe's Visual World Pamela Currie, 2017-07-05 Goethe's ideas on colour and imagery crossed many borderlines those of artistic processes and philosophical aesthetics art history and colour theory together with the science of perception This investigation into his writings ranges across art from Antiquity the Renaissance and the eighteenth century as well as exploring the centrality of these issues to Goethe's literary work Questions find answers but also raise new questions This systematic sequence of essays originally written between 1999 and 2011 appeals to readers in all these separate areas while drawing together their essential coherence The Illustrated Slave Martha J. Cutter, 2017-08-15 Analyzes works in the archive of antislavery illustrated books published from 1800 to 1852 alongside other visual materials that depict enslavement The Meaning of Life in Romantic Poetry and Poetics Ross Wilson, 2009-01-02 This volume brings together an impressive range of established and emerging scholars to investigate the meaning of life in Romantic poetry and poetics This investigation involves sustained attention to a set of challenging questions at the heart of British Romantic poetic practice and theory Is poetry alive for the Romantic poets If so how Does life always mean life In a range of essays from a variety of complementary perspectives a number of major Romantic poets are examined in detail The fate of Romantic conceptions of life in later poetry also receives attention Through for examples a revision of Blake's relationship to so called rationalism a renewed examination of Wordsworth's fascination with country graveyards an exploration of Shelley's concept of survival and a discussion of the notions of life in Byron Kierkegaard and Mozart this volume opens up new and exciting terrain in Romantic poetry's relation to literary theory the history of philosophy ethics and aesthetics The Rhetoric of Interpretation and the Interpretation of Rhetoric Paul Hernadi, 1989 The Russian Kurosawa Olga V. Solovieva, 2023 Offers a new historical and thematic perspective on the work of the renowned Japanese director Akira Kurosawa through a detailed discussion of the four films he made based on Russian sources Dead Theory Jeffrey R. Di Leo, 2016-05-19 What is the legacy of Theory after the deaths of so many of its leading lights from Jacques Derrida to Roland Barthes Bringing together reflections by leading contemporary scholars Dead Theory explores the afterlives of the work of the great theorists and the current state of Theory today Considering the work of thinkers such as Derrida Deleuze and Levinas the book explores the ways in which Theory has long been haunted by death and how it might endure for the future

The Moment of Caravaggio Michael Fried, 2023-10-17 A major reevaluation of Caravaggio from one of today's leading art historians This is a groundbreaking examination of one of the most important artists in the Western tradition by one of the leading art historians and critics of the past half century In his first extended consideration of the Italian Baroque painter Michelangelo Merisi da Caravaggio 1573-1610 Michael Fried offers a transformative account of the artist's revolutionary achievement Based on the A W Mellon Lectures in the Fine Arts delivered at the National Gallery of Art The Moment of Caravaggio displays Fried's unique combination of interpretive brilliance historical seriousness and theoretical sophistication providing sustained and unexpected readings of a wide range of major works from the early Boy Bitten by a Lizard to the late Martyrdom of Saint Ursula The result is an electrifying new perspective on a crucial episode in the history of European painting Focusing on the emergence of the full-blown gallery picture in Rome during the last decade of the sixteenth century and the first decades of the seventeenth Fried draws forth an expansive argument one that leads to a radically revisionist account of Caravaggio's relation to the self-portrait of the role of extreme violence in his art as epitomized by scenes of decapitation and of the deep structure of his epoch-defining realism Fried also gives considerable attention to the art of Caravaggio's great rival Annibale Carracci as well as to the work of Caravaggio's followers including Orazio and Artemisia Gentileschi Bartolomeo Manfredi and Valentin de Boulogne Please note All images in this ebook are presented in black and white and have been reduced in size
