Speer The Final Verdict:

Speer Joachim C. Fest, 2001 A portrait of Germany's World War II Armaments Minister considers his rise from unemployed architect to designer of the Third Reich's most important buildings personal relationship with Hitler and considerable ambition

Speer Joachim C. Fest, 2003-11-10 Albert Speer was an unemployed architect when Hitler came to power in 1933 Soon he was designing the Third Reich's most important buildings In 1942 Hitler appointed him Armaments Minister and he quadrupled production an astonishing achievement that kept the German Army in the field and prolonged the war Yet Speer's life was full of contradictions The only member of the Nazi elite with whom Hitler developed more than a purely functional relationship he has even been called Hitler's unrequited love Speer was always an outsider in Hitler's inner circle He saw himself as an artist above the crass power struggles of the roughnecks around him But his enormous ambition blinded him to the crimes in which he played a leading role Brilliantly illustrated this gripping account of one man's rise and fall helps explain how Germany descended so far into crime and barbarism

From Chattel Slavery to Modern Slavery Stuart Casey-Maslen, Loren Persi Vicentic, 2025-04-30 Chattel slavery in which people were considered as objects to be bought sold and destroyed dates back to the dawn of civilisation This work documents the legal basis for slavery and its many abuses across the ages by some of the main enslavers The voices of the victims and those who observed their plight are given prominence as personal histories in each chapter Slavery in the modern era includes enslavement by the Nazi regime and most recently of the Yazidis in Iraq and Syria by Islamic State Slave like practices often termed modern slavery are also included in a chapter of this volume The book ends with consideration of whether reparations for historic slavery should be made

Children of Nazis Tania Crasnianski, 2018-02-06 The Fascinating Story of Eight Children of Third Reich Leaders and their Journey from Descendants of Heroes to Descendants of Criminals In 1940 the German sons and daughters of great Nazi dignitaries Himmler Goering Hess Frank Bormann Heide Speer and Mengele were children of privilege at four five or ten years old surrounded by affectionate all powerful parents Although innocent and unaware of what was happening at the time they eventually discovered the extent of their father's occupations These men their fathers who were capable of loving their children and receiving love in return were leaders of the Third Reich and would later be convicted as monstrous war criminals For these children the German defeat was an earth shattering source of family rupture the end of opulence and the jarring discovery of Hitler's atrocities How did the offspring of these leaders deal with the aftermath of the war and the skeletons that would haunt them forever Some chose to disown their past Others did not Some condemned their fathers others worshiped them unconditionally to the end In this enlightening book which has been translated into eleven languages Tania Crasnianski examines the responsibility of eight descendants of Nazi notables caught somewhere between stigmatization worship and amnesia By tracing the unique experiences of these children she probes at the relationship between them and their fathers and examines the idea of how responsibility for the fault is continually borne by the descendants The Broken Voice Robert Eaglestone,2017 Robert Eaglestone explores the interweaving of complicity responsibility temporality and the often problematic powers of narrative which make up some part of the legacy of the Holocaust He examines a range of texts by significant writers as well as work by victims and perpetrators of the Holocaust and of atrocities in Africa The Future of Memory Richard Crownshaw,Jane Kilby,Antony Rowland,2010-11-01 Memory studies has become a rapidly growing area of scholarly as well as public interest This volume brings together world experts to explore the current critical trends in this new academic field It embraces work on diverse but interconnected phenomena such as twenty first century museums shocking memorials in present day Rwanda and the firsthand testimony of the victims of genocidal conflicts The collection engages with pressing real world issues such as the furor around the recent 9 11 memorial and what we really mean when we talk about trauma Fire and Fury Randall Hansen,2025-05-08 Insightful rigorously researched and splendidly written Donald L Miller author of Masters of the Air During World War II Allied bombing obliterated every major German and Japanese city Before the dropping of the atomic bombs conventional bombing had killed approximately 400 000 Germans and 330 00 Japanese the vast majority civilians Two thirds of Germans who died under the bombs did so in 1944 and 1945 and in the last year of the war cities with little military were obliterated In Japan American bombers destroyed all but three major Japanese cities and the people in them after March 1945 These raids occurred in other words when Allied victory was assured and when precision bombing techniques were far more advanced than they were earlier in the war Fire and Fury asks why Based on extensive archival sources interviews with bombing survivors airmen and published first hand accounts the book looks at the bombing campaign from an avowedly human perspective Allied German and Japanese It recreates the experience of living through the death of a city It presents the complex personalities of the senior airmen and explores why bombing campaigns that seem so excessive seventy five years later seemed reasonable to many at the time It explains why those campaigns became so murderous so late in the war And it asks with the full benefits of time s fullness whether it was all worth it Perfect for fans of Max Hastings James Holland and Antony Beevor Outstanding Margaret MacMillan author of Paris 1919 Six Months that Changed the World Clear well argued and grippingly told Keith Lowe author of Inferno The Fiery Destruction of Hamburg 1943 The Holocaust and the Revival of Psychological History Judith M. Hughes,2015 Why did men and women in one of the best educated countries in the Western world set out to get rid of Jews In this book Judith M Hughes focuses on how historians efforts to grapple anew with matters of actors meanings intentions and purposes have prompted a return to psychoanalytically informed ways of thinking Hughes makes her case with fine grained analyses of books by Hugh Trevor Roper Ian Kershaw Daniel Goldhagen Saul Friedlander Christopher Browning Jan Gross Hannah Arendt and Gitta Sereny All of the authors pose psychological questions the more astute among them shed fresh light on the Holocaust without making the past any less disturbing Builders of the Third Reich Charles Dick,2020-11-12 This is the first comprehensive critical study of the Organisation

Todt OT a key institution which oversaw the Third Reich's vast slave labour programme together with the SS Wehrmacht and industry. The book breaks new ground by revealing the full extent of the organisation's brutal and murderous operations across occupied Europe and in the Reich. For the first time Charles Dick provides a strong voice for camp survivors overseen by the OT drawing on an extensive collection of personal accounts and analysing the violence they endured. Builders of the Third Reich shows Hitler used the OT which had a labour force of around 1.5 million people in 1944 as an instrument of subjugation and occupation to project German imperial power. Drawing on a broad range of primary sources it demonstrates how the organisation participated in the plunder of Europe's raw materials and manpower greatly boosting the German war economy. The book reveals how OT staff shot, beat or worked tens of thousands of prisoners to death both within the SS run concentration camp system and outside it with analysis of OT operations showing that where it had sole or very high levels of control over camps prisoner death rates were extremely high. Examining how engineers and builders individuals who fitted the category of ordinary men as precisely as any other group so far examined by historians perpetrated war crimes this volume reflects on how few OT personnel were interrogated or came to trial and how the organisation passed largely under the radar of post war prosecutors, researchers and the general public.

The Charles Colson Collection: The Good Life / How Now Shall We Live? Charles Colson, 2017-01-10. This collection bundles two of popular author Chuck Colson's classics into one volume for a great value. The Good Life: What constitutes the good life? Chuck Colson explores the ways in which people define and live the pursuit of happiness. Colson uses fascinating real life stories to illustrate the philosophies and worldviews by which individuals seek the good life. Colson speaks directly and revealingly about his Watergate years and he examines the beliefs and assumptions that make up the fabric of our lives. The Good Life searches for answers to the questions we all ask: Who am I? Why am I here? How can I make my life count? How Now Shall We Live: True Christianity goes far beyond John 3:16 beyond private faith and personal salvation. It is nothing less than a framework for understanding all of reality. It is a worldview. In How Now Shall We Live, the 2000 Gold Medallion winner for best book about Christianity and society, Chuck Colson and Nancy Pearcey show that the great spiritual battle today is a cosmic struggle between competing worldviews. Through inspiring true stories and compelling teaching they demonstrate how to expose the false views and values of modern culture, live a more fulfilling life the way God created us to live, contend for the faith by understanding how nonbelievers think, build a society that reflects biblical principles. In short How Now Shall We Live will give you the confidence you need to make a difference in the world today and most of all in the lives of people around you.
