Banker's Trust Sabrina Stephens, 2012-03-02 Rita Miller, an experienced banker in the quaint town of Shallotte, North Carolina, is now employed by a megabank that acquired the community bank where she had spent her decade-long career. Resentful of corporate assimilation and suspicious of her new co-workers, Rita is thrust into the thankless position of budgeting for the bank office where she unwittingly uncovers an insidious pattern of crime that predates the merger and potentially involves old and new co-workers. As Rita and her best friends slowly piece the crime together, the fear of discovery turns deadly as the criminals desperately try to cover up and destroy evidence of their fraud. At the same time, a chance encounter with Ross Moore, the new bank's president, propels Rita into an intra-bank personal relationship she desires but has convinced herself is forbidden. As her perceptions of right and wrong, good and bad, and transparency and deception are challenged, Rita is forced to decide whether matters of the heart allow for forgiveness when the lines between them are blurred and trust is broken to protect the greater good. The story explores secrecy and confidentiality, honesty and forthrightness, and the resulting shades of gray that shape everyday decisions and interactions with friends, families, and fellow employees.

When other guys start to take notice of Liz, Aidan is troubled with fits of jealousy. Elizabeth then meets the ruggedly handsome Spencer Hayes, and they quickly bond over their passion for music. Kid-ventors Kailei Pew, 2024-04-23 What do swim fins, Popsicles, Infection Detecting Stitches, the Braille alphabet, and Taco vs Burrito all have in common? They were all invented by kids. When Remya Jose had to spend many hours washing her family's laundry by hand, she invented a pedal-powered washing machine that could finish the chore in only 20 minutes. When Tripp Phillips' Lego creations kept falling apart, he developed a glue strong enough to hold his creations together that would wash off when he was ready to build something new. And when Fatima Al Kaabi didn't have anyone willing to teach her about robotics, she turned to the internet to teach herself all the skills she needed and created multiple crowd-pleasing robots in the process. From Popsicles and swim fins to robots and glitter-shooting prosthetics, Kailei Pew's middle-grade nonfiction debut is full of fun and inspiring stories illustrated by Shannon Wright about real kid inventors who proved that even the youngest people can change the world.
