American Foreign Relations Reconsidered Gordon Martel, 2002-11-01 This major new textbook brings together twelve of the leading scholars of U S foreign relations Each contributor provides a clear concise summary of an important period or theme in US diplomatic and strategic affairs since the Spanish American War Michael Hunt and Joan Hoff provide an overview of the traditions behind US policy and a preview of things to come Together the contributors offer a succinct explanation of the controversies and questions that historians have grappled with throughout the twentieth century Students will find these essays a reliable and useful guide to the various schools of thought which have emerged Although each of the scholars is well known for their detailed and original work these essays are new and have been specially commissioned for this book The articles follow the chronological development of the emergence of the United States as a world power but special themes such as the American policy process economic interests relations with the Third World and the dynamics of the nuclear arms race have been singled out for separate treatment American Foreign Relations Reconsidered 1890 1993 represents essential reading for upper level undergraduates studying modern American history The book has been designed and written exclusively to meet the needs of students either as a major course text or as a set of supplementary readings to support other texts Not Like Us Richard Pells, 2008-08-04 Debunking the myth of the Americanization of Europe a noted historian presents an authoritative and engrossing cultural history of how America tried to remake Europe in its own image and how the Europeans successfully retained their identity in the face of American mass culture Pells provides a new paradigm for understanding the survival of local and national cultures in a global setting The Making of Global Capitalism Sam Gindin, Leo Panitch, 2012-10-09 The all encompassing embrace of world capitalism at the beginning of the twenty first century was generally attributed to the superiority of competitive markets Globalization had appeared to be the natural outcome of this unstoppable process But today with global markets roiling and increasingly reliant on state intervention to stay afloat it has become clear that markets and states aren't straightforwardly opposing forces In this groundbreaking work Leo Panitch and Sam Gindin demonstrate the intimate relationship between modern capitalism and the American state including its role as an informal empire promoting free trade and capital movements Through a powerful historical survey they show how the US has superintended the restructuring of other states in favor of competitive markets and coordinated the management of increasingly frequent financial crises The Making of Global Capitalism through its highly original analysis of the first great economic crisis of the twenty first century identifies the centrality of the social conflicts that occur within states rather than between them These emerging fault lines hold out the possibility of new political movements transforming nation states and transcending global markets US Foreign Policy in World History David

Ryan,2014-04-23 US Foreign Policy in World History is a survey of US foreign relations and its perceived crusade to spread liberty and democracy in the two hundred years since the American Revolution David Ryan undertakes a systematic and material analysis of US foreign policy whilst also explaining the policymakers grand ideas ideologies and constructs that have shaped US diplomacy US Foreign Policy explores these arguments by taking a thematic approach structured around central episodes and ideas in the history of US foreign relations and policy making including The Monroe Doctrine its philosophical goals and impact Imperialism and expansionism Decolonization and self determination the Cold War Third World development the Soviet evil empire the Sandinistas and the rogue regime of Saddam Hussein the place of goal for economic integration within foreign affairs Teaching America to the World and the World to America R. Garlitz,L.

Jarvinen,2012-08-06 A fresh analysis of the study of American foreign relations history this book shows the ways in which international education has shaped the US relationship with the world The Weekly War James Landers,2004

Liberty's Surest Guardian Jeremi Suri,2011-09-27 Americans are a nation building people and in Liberty's Surest Guardian Jeremi Suri Nobel Fellow and leading light in the next generation of policy makers looks to America's history to see both what it has to offer failed states around the world and what it should avoid Far from being cold imperialists Americans have earnestly attempted to export their invention of representative government We have had successes Reconstruction after the American Civil War the Philippines Western Europe and failures Vietnam and we can learn a good deal from both Nation building is in America's DNA It dates back to the days of the American Revolution when the founding fathers invented the concept of popular sovereignty the idea that you cannot have a national government without a collective will The framers of the Constitution initiated a policy of cautious nation building hoping not to conquer other countries but to build a world of stable self governed societies that would support America's way of life Yet no other country has created more problems for itself and for others by intervening in distant lands and pursuing impractical changes Nation building can work only when local citizens own it and do not feel it is forced upon them There is no one way to spread this idea successfully but Suri has mined more than two hundred years of American policy in order to explain the five P's of nation building PARTNERS Nation building always requires partners there must be communication between people on the ground and people in distant government offices PROCESS Human societies do not follow formulas Nation building is a process which does not produce clear quick results PROBLEM SOLVING Leadership must start small addressing basic problems Public trust during a period of occupation emerges from the fulfillment of basic needs PURPOSE Small beginnings must serve larger purposes Citizens must see the value in what they're doing PEOPLE Nation building is about people Large forces do not move history People move history Our actions in Iraq Afghanistan and Libya will have a dramatic impact on international stability Jeremi Suri provocative historian and one of Smithsonian magazine's Top Young Innovators takes on the idea of American exceptionalism and turns it into a playbook for President Obama over the next vital few years
