Spring on the Somme Arthur R. Taylor, 1995-01-01 Proceedings of the Geologists' Association Geologists' Association, 1876 Napoleon III and the Rebuilding of Paris David H. Pinkney, 2025-03-11 A classic history of the creation of modern Paris by Napoleon III and Haussmann Between 1850 and 1870 Napoleon III and his Prefect of the Seine Baron Haussmann created the modern city of Paris out of the congested and ill equipped capital of the eighteenth century They gave Paris many of its present major streets its great municipal parks the Central Markets the Opera House and other well known buildings and a water supply system and sewer network that still serve the city In Napoleon III and the Rebuilding of Paris David Pinkney tells the story of how Paris was transformed and examines the many challenges that the venture faced including an increasing population engineering problems political complications and personality clashes Pinkney sets the undertaking in the context of French political and economic history shows its relation to the public health movement of the mid nineteenth century and explains its significance in the history of city planning The American Museum Journal American Museum of Natural History, 1920 The Iron Division National Guard of Pennsylvania in the World War (WWI Centenary Series) H. G. Proctor, 2016-03-10 If love admiration and respect with a sense of personal gratification at seeing the hopes and predictions of years fulfilled may be pleaded as justification for a self appointed chronicler then this book needs no excuse It is offered with a serene confidence that it does justice and nothing more than simple justice to as fine and gallant a body of soldiers as ever represented this great commonwealth in action This book is part of the World War One Centenary series creating collating and reprinting new and old works of poetry fiction autobiography and analysis The series forms a commemorative tribute to mark the passing of one of the world's bloodiest wars offering new perspectives on this tragic yet fascinating period of human history Each publication also includes brand new introductory essays and a timeline to help the reader place the work in its historical context The Entomologist, 1917

The Flag Andrew Richards, 2020-01-10 This well researched biography brings home something of what it was to be an army chaplain amid the battles in France and Flanders Methodist Recorder Between 1916 and 1918 chaplain David Railton supported the soldiers on the Western Front in their worst moments He buried the fallen comforted the wounded wrote to the families of the missing and killed and helped the survivors to remember and mark the loss of their comrades so that they were able to carry on He was with his men at many battles including High Wood the Aisne and Passchendaele He received the Military Cross for rescuing an officer and two men under heavy fire on the Somme It was Railton's idea to bring home the body of an unidentified fallen comrade from the battlefields to be buried in Westminster Abbey and on Armistice Day 1920 he was there in the Abbey as the Unknown Warrior was laid to rest with full honors Although suffering from post traumatic stress disorder he returned to work as a parish priest in Margate where he took particular interest in supporting ex servicemen who had returned home to the aftermath of a terrible war and crippling unemployment This is the first book to explore David Railton's life and the padre's flag he used as an altar cloth and shroud throughout the war the flag that was consecrated a year after the burial of the Unknown Warrior and hangs in Westminster Abbey to this day The Other Wars Justin Fantauzzo, 2020 The first full length study of the experience and memory of British and Dominion soldiers in the Middle East and Macedonia during WWI Through the Iron Bars: Two Years of German Occupation in Belgium (WWI Centenary Series) Emile Cammaerts, 2016-03-10 It is the plain matter of fact story of Belgian life under German rule Many more people will be tempted to praise the glory of our soldiers But if the incidents of conquered Belgium's life are not recorded in good time they might escape notice People might forget that besides the 150 000 to 200 000 heroes who are now waging war for Belgium on the Western front there are 7 500 000 heroes who are suffering for Belgium behind the German lines in the close prison of guarded frontiers cut off from the whole world separated alike from those who are fighting for their deliverance and from those who have sought refuge abroad This book is part of the World War One Centenary series creating collating and reprinting new and old works of poetry fiction autobiography and analysis The series forms a commemorative tribute to mark the passing of one of the world's bloodiest wars offering new perspectives on this tragic yet fascinating period of human history Each publication also includes brand new introductory essays and a timeline to help the reader place the work in its historical context Sailing Directions (enroute) , 1991
